VARIOUS TYPEWRITERS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On March 15, 1977, your Honor approved a permission to award contracts to several companies for furnishing manual and electric typewriters to several companies resulting from publicly opened bids of December 8, 1976.

The award of one contract incorrectly read Facit Addo, Inc., c/o Office Appliance Company.

Permission is requested to amend the original letter dated March 9, 1977, to have the name of the company read Office Appliance Company.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

ELECTION DEPARTMENT

VOTING MACHINE TRANSPORTATION

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the Board of Election Commissioners, I hereby request permission to amend the contract of C. Walsh, Inc., from $17,800, to $18,917. This contract, No. 5104, is for the transportation of voting machines.

Public advertising for said transportation of voting machines was under date of June 7, 1976, and the letter of award was signed July 8, 1976.

This amendment is necessary because of the federal desegregation order of closing of schools, requiring additional moving of voting machines to other polling locations.

We respectfully request permission to increase this contract by $1,117.

Sincerely,
For the Board,
JOHN M. ROBINSON,
Chairman.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT

BILLING SLIPS PREPARATION

DEAR SIR:

An invitation for bids for furnishing keytaping and verification services for the Department of Health and Hospitals billing slips for the period August 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, was advertised in the City Record, on July 19, 1976, and bids were publicly opened and read aloud on July 30, 1976.

The contract was to be awarded to the three low bidders:

Advanced Automation Associates, Inc., 500 Clark Road, Tewksbury, MA 01876, $50,433.57; North East Services Co., Inc. (NESCO), 105 Gay Street, Manchester, N.H. 03103, $54,129.87; RAMCO, 311 Central Street, Saugus, Mass. 01906, $54,190.29.

Before the award could be approved, RAMCO requested to be relieved from their contract obligations by letter dated October 26, 1976, and signed by the authorized corporate officer Robert J. Mackey. The two remaining low bidders, Advanced Automation Associates, Inc. and North East Service Co., Inc., thereupon, mutually agreed to collaborate in a joint enterprise and to apportion between each other the duties and benefits arising under the contract in equal shares at a total cost to the city not to exceed $50,374.51. The letter of award for this agreement was approved by your Honor on December 9, 1976.

After having provided services in an amount totaling $7,717.81, NESCO requested to be relieved from further performance because of its inability to obtain a performance bond equal in value to 50 percent of its share of the contract, as was required under the advertisement for bids.

Advanced Automation Association, Inc. agreed to assume NESCO's remaining part of the contract as originally approved by your Honor and newly documented in the letter of award dated February 18, 1977.

Therefore, as the Department of Health and Hospitals is not adversely affected by this change in circumstances, in any way whatsoever, I, David L. Rosenbloom, Commissioner, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, request your Honor's permission to rescind the city's original contract with NESCO, for the period August 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $25,187.25, and to award in its place a contract for the period August 1, 1976, through January 31, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $7,717.81.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLOOM,
Commissioner.

HOUSING INSPECTION DEPARTMENT

Housing Improvement Program COMPUTER SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby request your permission to amend a contract currently for an amount of $90,000, and effective from July 1, 1976, to June 30, 1977, with Scientific Time Sharing Corporation (STSC), a Delaware corporation, for professional programming and computer services for the city's Housing Improvement Program (HIP).

Under the terms of the amendment, the original contract will be increased to an amount not to exceed $130,000, an increment of an additional $40,000. Payment for the contract and the amendment will be made from the Community Development Block Grant.

As the caseload of the Housing Improvement Program continues to increase, additional programming and computer services are needed from STSC. In particular, storage costs will continue to increase as our data base increases.

In view of the high quality of services furnished by STSC to date, I recommend that the maximum compensation to STSC be raised to a level of $130,000, and that public advertising will serve no useful purpose.

Sincerely,
JOHN A. VITAGLIANO,
Commissioner.

MAYOR'S OFFICE

CONVEYANCE OF PROPERTIES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby request your permission to amend a contract agreement currently budgeted at $7,500, and effective for the period October 4, 1976, through March 31, 1977, with the Boston Redevelopment Authority, for services related to the conveyance of property under the Homesteading Program.

Under the terms of the amended agreement, there will be no change in the original contract sum and the term of the contract will be extended to March 31, 1978. Also under the terms of the amended agreement, provision will be made for the conveyance of rehabilitative properties from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, to the Boston Redevelopment Authority and, immediately thereafter, to nonprofit corporations conducting already funded rehabilitation programs similar to Homesteading. This provision will reduce the cost of rehabilitation by allowing nonprofit corporations to utilize the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's "PROP" program which allows for the acquisition of HUD properties for nominal consideration by public agencies.

The amount budgeted for this contract will cover the costs for conveyance of title, search of title, and preparation of deed for each property. Payment for this contract will be made from the Community Development Block Grant.

In conformance with the federal rules and regulations under which these services will be delivered, the Boston Redevelopment Authority is the proper public agency to perform this contract. Therefore, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,

ANDREW M. OLINS,
Special Assistant to the Mayor.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

FARRIER SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

Enclosed is a copy of your original approval of award of a contract to James G. Lovett, 47 Prince Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass. 02130, for farrier services.

During the 1977 fiscal year, the Police Department obtained two more horses for the mounted unit. This required more farrier services than specified in the original contract amount of $8,568. The increased workload has caused an additional expenditure of $600.

Therefore, I respectfully request that you approve an amendment to the contract for farrier services by increasing the contract price from $8,568, to $9,168. All other terms of the contract remain unchanged.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH M. JORDAN,
Police Commissioner.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

FEASIBILITY STUDY

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on January 19, 1977, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising, and to enter into an agreement with Perry Dean Partners, Inc., architects, a Massachusetts corporation, with offices at 955 Park Square Building, Boston, Mass., amending a contract between the City of Boston and Perry Dean Partners, executed on January 13, 1977, for a feasibility study at Boston City Hospital, so as to increase the fee for services from $30,000 to $45,000; a total of not to exceed $15,000.

For your Honor's further information this increase is necessary to broaden the scope of the feasibility study to enumerate the potential of the long-term viability of the Dowling Building in conjunction with the South Block of the Boston City Hospital. In addition, the time for completion of these architectural services will be increased four months.

Due to the provisions of the law to the effect that executed and existing city contracts may only be altered by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and contract surety on the performance bonds, it would appear that public advertising in this case could not best serve the public interest.

Respectfully,

VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

SECURITY SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On November 30, 1976, your Honor approved my request dated November 30, 1976, to award a publicly advertised contract to Minuteman Security Service, Inc., 20 Lomasney Way, Boston, Mass., in the amount of $45,008.

Your Honor's written authorization is now requested to amend that communication as follows:

By deleting paragraph two (2) in its entirety and by inserting in place thereof the following:

In accordance with standard city practices using procedures set forth in G.L. chapter 149, section 44B as a guide, Metropolitan Bureau of Investigations, Inc., furnished satisfactory evidence that they made a substantial clerical error in their general bid. Therefore, this firm was allowed to withdraw and we returned its bid security.

Except for this substituted paragraph my letter of November 30, 1976, remains in effect.

Respectfully,

VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

ENGINEERING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On March 10, 1975, your Honor authorized the award of a contract to the consulting firm of Storch Associates, 824 Boylston Street, Chestnut Hill, Mass., for carrying out of certain engineering services required in connection with the need to redesign existing traffic signals to meet the national standards or else risk the loss of state and federal funds available for such work. This authorization allowed the city to implement the redesign of fifty-six signalized intersections that were substandard when compared to the Uniform Manual of Traffic Control Devices.

However, because of changes required by an application for a Public Works Employment Act of 1976 grant, the scope of work must be altered and enlarged. This will require that the consultant produce two sets of expanded construction documents as opposed to the one that is presently specified as well as requiring some detailed labor and material cost breakdowns. Also, there was a general increase in the scope of work and effort required at each intersection.

Therefore, because of the professional character and satisfactory performance of engineering work already provided in connection with the original requirements of the contract, and in order to insure continuous, uninterrupted engineering services relative to this contract, your Honor's authorization is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to amend the present contract by increasing the maximum amount from $100,000 to $130,000, and by extending the termination date from November 12, 1976, to August 12, 1977.

Very truly yours,
JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

CONSULTING SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On June 3, 1975, your Honor authorized the award of a contract to the consulting firm of Edwards and Kelcey, 470 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, for the carrying-out of certain engineering services required in connection with proposed operational improvements, along Brookline Avenue from Fenwood Road to Longwood Avenue, with the need for a review of all existing traffic signal channelization, pavement markings, street lighting, parking regulation signs, street name signs, and the preparation of plans for the installation of traffic signals at ten intersections in various sections of the city.

In order to accomplish this work for submittal to the state as an Urban Systems project, it was necessary to perform the following detailed kinds of engineering: field reconnaissance and preparation of base plans; analysis of traffic flows and accidents; engineering studies and preliminary design plans, including related street improvements such as widenings, traffic islands, medians, etc.; environmental evaluations; final design and preparation of contract plans, estimates, and specifications.

However, because of changes necessitated by an application for a Public Works Employment Act of 1976 grant, the scope of work must be altered and enlarged. The consultant will be required to change the present, prepared, contract documents into two greatly enlarged contract documents and break down various items of the estimates into separate labor and materials cost. In addition, there will be additional anticipated changes required as a result of community meetings.

Therefore, because of the professional character and satisfactory performance of engineering work already provided in connection with the original requirements of the contract, and in order to insure continuous uninterrupted engineering services relative to this contract, your Honor's authorization is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to amend the present contract by increasing the maximum amount from $100,000 to $114,000.

Very truly yours,
JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

ROCK SALT TESTING

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On May 21, 1975, your Honor authorized a contract to The Thompson & Lichtner Co., Inc., 8 Alton Place, Brookline, Mass., to provide for furnishing services for sampling and testing of rock salt.

Since the Public Works Department does not have a testing laboratory, the contract provides that in order to control the quality of rock salt, a private engineer must be engaged to perform this work to insure compliance with our specifications.

The Thompson & Lichtner Company, has done a thorough and excellent job of performing these services under the direction of Miles W. Clair, who not only operates a complete and competent testing laboratory, but maintains an excellent staff of professional engineers capable of furnishing complete rock salt testing and engineering services to this department.

A careful analysis shows that in order to fully furnish the services as described, the amount of the present contract should be increased by $2,000.

Therefore, because of the professional character and satisfactory performance of testing work and inspection at the delivery site already provided, and in order to insure uninterrupted services for the compliance of our contract specifications, your authorization is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to amend the present contract by increasing the maximum from $11,000 to $13,000.

Very truly yours,
JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT
EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

"Eve was made from Adam's rib, and that was surely a surgical operation," said the surgeon.

"Wait!" exclaimed the politician. "Somebody had to create that chaos in the first place."

My secretary puts the day's unfinished work in a manila folder which she has labeled "Residue." When I asked the reason for that choice of file heading, she replied, "I do what I can today, and the rest I due tomorrow."

HON. KEVIN H. WHITE. MAYOR OF BOSTON

JOSEPH M. TIERNEY
PRESIDENT. CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 69

MONDAY, AUGUST 22, 1977

NO. 34

Mayor Encourages "Boston Plan" Comments

Mayor Kevin White, in releasing details of the Boston Plan, has encouraged a full discussion of its provisions by all sectors of the Boston community.

"The Boston Plan is an ambitious attempt to capture large amounts of public and private money to alleviate some of our worst urban problems," Mayor White said. "While its specific proposals are earmarked for four geographical areas of the city, its job development, economic and industrial development provisions will benefit the entire city.

"It is very important, therefore, that all citizens understand the Boston Plan's intent and potential; and ultimately, that we achieve a consensus of local support before seeking funding from Washington," the Mayor added.

"The current draft of the Boston Plan is just that — a draft," Mayor White continued. "It is the result of over three months work by some twenty-five professionals from within city government. We believe that its recommendations are both imaginative and practical; but they are not engraved in stone," he said. "We are now seeking advice and comment from the public as we circulate the draft for community review over the next two months."

The Mayor explained that city officials will spend the next two months meeting with neighborhood groups, labor and business leaders, state, local, and federal officials to explain the Boston Plan and obtain their views.

"We are looking for specific comments and suggestions for improvement of the document before it goes into final form," Mayor White said. "Our goal is to present to federal officials a final draft that all sectors of the city can support and see as a much-needed, economic shot-in-the-arm for Boston."

Comments should be submitted in writing to the Mayor's Office of Federal Relations by October 15, 1977.

Copies of the Boston Plan will be available for community review in the Little City Halls and branch libraries as of Monday, August 22. Inquiries on the plan should be made to the Mayor's Office of Federal Relations.

ISRAELI MAIL DEADLINES

The Israeli postal administration has set a number of deadlines for receiving mail to be delivered prior to the Jewish New Year, according to the United States Postal Service.

The Jewish New Year will begin September 13.

In order to assure delivery in time for the observance, all surface parcels should be received in Israel by August 25; surface letters and cards by September 1; airmail parcels by September 6; and airmail letters and cards no later than September 6.

VOTING REGISTRATION REMINDER

September 7 is the last day to register for voting in the September 27. Preliminary Election; October 19, for the November 8. City Election.

UNITED COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENT

Jerome J. Wild of Scituate has been promoted, effective September 1, 1977, to executive vice-president of United Community Planning Corporation. He also recently was elected president of the United Way Executives Association of Massachusetts, an organization for fund raisers and human services planners from thirty-two Massachusetts United Way's communities which raised more than $30 million in 1976 to provide human care services to residents statewide.

Since December, 1976, Mr. Wild has been the associate, executive vice-president of United Community Planning Corporation, the human services planning partner of the United Way of Massachusetts Bay which covers sixty-seven Massachusetts Bay cities and towns, including Boston.

Prior to that, Mr. Wild was the associate executive director of the Community Chest and Council of the Greater Cincinnati area for five years, and prior to that he worked in Massachusetts as the associate planning director at United Community Services of Greater Worcester.

At United Community Planning Corporation he succeeds Harold W. Demone, Jr., Ph.D., of Weston, who has been named dean of the Graduate School of Social Work, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey.

Mr. Wild holds a bachelor of arts degree from Northeastern University and a master's degree from Boston College.

BOSTON HONORS ELLIOT NORTON

Elliot Norton, America's foremost theater critic, will be honored by the City of Boston when a new park on Tremont Street, adjacent to Boston's theater district, will be officially named "Elliot Norton Park" at dedication ceremonies on August 24 at 5:30 P.M.

Major Kevin H. White and Robert F. Walsh, director of the Boston Redevelopment Authority, will join with representatives of the Stuart Street Neighborhood Association (which represents Boston's theater district) and the nearby Chinatown and Bay Village communities at the ceremonies.

Broadway musical star Carol Channing, who will open in "Hello, Dolly!" the evening of August 24 at the Music Hall, and who is a personal friend of Mr. Norton, will play a prominent role in the dedication ceremony. Jerry Herman, the composer and lyricist of "Hello, Dolly!" will accompany her on the piano.

The tribute to Mr. Norton will also include entertainment provided by cast members from two of the theater productions currently being presented in Boston, "Nightclub Cantata" and "Jacques Brel."

The new, one-acre park, which occupies a site near the Hotel Bradford and across from the Music Hall, was built by the Boston Redevelopment Authority as part of the South Cove Urban Renewal Project. The landscaped, brick-paved park features a large central space that is designed to provide a stage and seating for informal theater performances and also has a fountain. A second sitting area has low stools and tables for chess and checkers. The park is extensively planted with trees and shrubs.

In announcing the dedication ceremony, BRA Director Walsh said, "Naming this new park after Elliot Norton provides us with an opportunity to show our appreciation and gratitude for Mr. Norton's contribution to theater in Boston."

"This park will serve the open-space needs of the Chinese community and the Bay Village neighborhood. It is, at the same time, part of the city's ongoing effort to upgrade the physical environment of the theater district. Since theater in Boston and Elliot Norton are synonymous, it is only fitting that anything done to help theater in Boston should have Elliot Norton's name affixed to it."

A graduate of Harvard College, Mr. Norton has been a drama critic, first with the Boston Post and now with the Herald American, for close to fifty years. In addition, he conducts a weekly interview show on WGBH-TV, Boston, and is adjunct professor of dramatic literature at Boston University's School of Fine Arts.

Mr. Norton has been the recipient of numerous awards, including the George Jean Nathan Award for outstanding dramatic criticism; the George Foster Peabody Award for his television show; the Rodgers and Hammerstein College Presidents Award as "the person who has done most for theater in Boston"; and a "Tony" award for his contributions to American theater.

Mr. Norton has also been awarded honorary degrees from Suffolk University, Fairfield University, Northeastern University, and Emerson College.

Mr. Norton and his wife are residents of Watertown.

MARKETPLACE CELEBRATION: WE'RE ALL INVITED

On August 26, 1977, Faneuil Hall Marketplace celebrates its one hundred and fifty-first year with the opening of South Market.

The festivities will begin Thursday evening, August 25, at 8:30 P.M. with a Pops concert for the general public held on South Market Street. On Friday, August 26, at 11:30 A.M. there will be an opening ceremony followed by a variety of street entertainers and concert bands until 9 P.M.

South Market will add another dimension to the already busy Marketplace with over fifty new merchants opening small shops on the first three levels. The shop will feature a variety of distinctive merchandise: men's and women's fashion clothing, furniture and home furnishings, jewelry, gifts, and other accessories.

The upper levels of the building are already showing activity. Over 70 percent of the restored space has been leased and is occupied by office tenants.

Quincy Market, the first phase of the project, has been an enormous success. The surrounding Waterfront is alive and Downtown Boston has awakened with people day and night.

MAYOR LAUDS ELIZABETH G. COOK

Mayor Kevin H. White has praised the contributions to the cultural life of the City of Boston made by Elizabeth G. Cook, the director of the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs for the past five years. Mr. Cook leaves the city in early September to assume a marketing executive position with H. P. Hood Inc.

Mayor White said, "During the ten years that Betty Cook has served the city, she has added immeasurably to our efforts to enhance the rich cultural life we enjoy. First, as the associate director of Public Celebrations, and then as City Hall program director, Betty Cook made the new City Hall building a focal point for the arts in Boston."

Mayor White added, "The contributions she has made to the arts through her enthusiasm and leadership as director of the Office of Cultural Affairs have created a national model for municipal participation in the cultural life of a city. 'Summerthing' and Boston's 'Festival of the Arts' have flourished under her resourceful direction."

Mayor White noted, "Nowhere had her energy, or creativity been tested more than in this past year of financial uncertainty for her programs. She rose to the test, effectively lobbying many private corporations in the city to help underwrite her valuable work in the cultural community, and beyond, for all Bostonians to enjoy."

Mayor White concluded, "Betty Cook has made the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs the largest and the best office of its kind in the nation. Although Betty leaves the city's employ for private enterprise, our commitment to continue to bring the city and the artistic community together to enrich the cultural life of the city remains undiminished."

CITY PURSUES DELINQUENT PROPERTY TAXPAYERS

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that the tax collection office will soon be filing nineteen suits against landlords for back taxes totaling $420,000 to $430,000.

The suits will be filed in Boston Municipal Court as soon as the city Law Department reviews them. The cases were assembled by the delinquent tax unit in the Collection Division of the city Treasurer's Department.

Mayor White said, "This is only the latest example of the vigorous manner in which the city has been pursuing delinquent property taxpayers. These latest nineteen cases represent a staggering amount of work, totaling two man years of work."

The delinquent tax unit has filed fifty suits in the last four months seeking the payment of $1.5 million in back taxes.

Mayor White explained that the most productive method of collecting back taxes is court action. "The city could foreclose on delinquent property, but if a landlord ignores his taxes, there's a good chance he will also ignore the taxable property. Foreclosure, in that instance, would be of no benefit to the city."

Mayor White added, "But, if you take a delinquent to court, and he has a yacht in Palm Beach, the court can take the yacht for back taxes."

"We take this collection of back taxes very seriously, and are seeking creative and innovative methods of collection. Some of those innovations have proven unfeasible. But we still are attempting to develop a mechanism which will make it exceedingly difficult for property owners, particularly professional landlords, to ignore their tax bills," the Mayor concluded.

CHILDREN'S WHALE DRAWINGS: A FASCINATING DISPLAY

An engaging exhibit of children's drawings and writings about the whale is on display through September 5 at Boston's Museum of Science.

The display of 100 pieces, "There's a Sound in the Sea," is part of a collection made by Tamar Griggs of Vancouver, British Columbia, who conducts children's workshops on whales and has taught art in Vancouver schools.

Through elementary school magazines, she asked children in the United States and Canada to contribute pictures and written material on whales. Nearly 15,000 children responded. The result is the Museum's new display, as well as a book of the same title, published by Scrimshaw Press.

Although some of the youngsters comment directly on whale-killing, most of them express that light-hearted empathy toward animals so natural to children. In fresh, uninhibited styles, their whales leap, blow, and swim under violent suns and multicolored seas.

Included in the exhibit are information panels and photographs describing the biology, evolution, intelligence, and threat of extinction faced by these mammals.

Organized by the Pacific Science Center in Seattle, the exhibit is sponsored by the Audubon Society and the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service.

THEODORE GREEN

Services for Theodore Green, fifty-seven, of Dorchester, special assistant to Mayor White, were held August 12, in People's Baptist Church, Roxbury.

Mr. Green died suddenly, August 7, in the Veterans Administration Hospital in Jamaica Plain.

He had been appointed a mayoral assistant sixteen months ago. However, his service to the city began in the 1960s in the Brighton-Allston Little City Hall. He later was an assistant at the Roxbury Little City Hall.

Mayor White, commenting on Mr. Green's death, said, "Ted Green's name wasn't in the newspapers all the time, but he was a giant to the people whom he helped throughout Boston over the years. He best exemplified the human side of city government."

He was a member of the board of directors of the Salvation Army, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and was a Suffolk County constable.

Mr. Green was a loyal, patient, and dedicated worker, had an excellent rapport with the public, and was a credit to our city.

He was loved and respected by all his coworkers in City Hall, who were shocked by his sudden passing from this life.

He leaves his wife, Priscilla (Sampson); two daughters, Jonna-mae DeVane of Roxbury and Theodora Green of Hyde Park; his mother, Mrs. Estelle Green of Charleston, South Carolina, and four grandsons. Interment was in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Mattapan. May he ever rest in peace.

MAYOR DISCLOSES BLACKOUT PLANNING PROCEDURE

Mayor White Announces City Plans for Dealing with Electrical Blackouts.

Mayor Kevin H. White has stressed that emergency preparedness of city agencies for dealing with possible electrical blackouts is "more than adequate to assure public safety and protection of property."

The Mayor reviewed emergency plans at a recent City Hall conference with Vice-Mayor Edward Sullivan, Police Commissioner Joseph Jordan, Fire Commissioner George Paul, and Boston Edison Vice-President James Lydon.

"Since the blackout in New York City last month, concern has been raised in practically every major city about the ability to maintain basic services if the lights go out," Mayor White said.

"I want to assure the citizens who live and work in Boston that every department involved in emergency service has extensive plans for action in the event of a crisis. These plans were established long before what happened in New York City last month.

"I am announcing plans to provide for a specific response to a blackout," Mayor White said. Three major elements are:

- An emergency operations center for communications between city agencies during a crisis;

- A city-wide plan for traffic control and assistance during a blackout; and
- Plans to be developed by the School Department for helping students to get home safely if the lights fail.

"I want to emphasize that I have a lot of confidence in the ability of our electric utilities to keep us in service, but if a crisis should occur, I want this city to have a coordinated policy and a centralized facility for handling it," the Mayor added.

Vice-Mayor Sullivan outlined recent blackout planning by the city's Public Safety Commission, of which he is chairman. Commissioners Jordan and Paul detailed crisis responses of their agencies. Mr. Lydon then outlined the work done by New England's electric utilities to ensure electric service since the last region-wide blackout in November of 1965.

MAYOR DECRIES JOBLESSNESS AMONG

Mayor Kevin H. White has called the signing of the Youth Employment and Demonstration Act by President Carter "a significant step in addressing the shocking rate of employment among urban youth.

"Joblessness among young people — especially minority youth — in our cities is a national crisis which can only be alleviated by increased federal commitment," Mayor White said.

He said both John Drew, head of Boston's Office of Federal Relations and Charles Atkins, head of the city's newly formed Employment and Economic Planning Administration, have been in Washington expressing the city's interest in youth jobs with Robert Taggard, who will head the federal Youth Employment Program.

The Mayor cited projections by the state Division of Employment Security on youth unemployment in Boston in fiscal year 1978. They show:

— 15 percent of white males, ages sixteen to nineteen, and 15 percent of ages twenty to twenty-four, unemployed.

— 35 percent of nonwhite males, ages sixteen to nineteen, and 16 percent of ages twenty to twenty-four unemployed.

— 10 percent of white females, ages sixteen to nineteen, and 5 percent of ages twenty to twenty-four, unemployed.

— 15 percent of nonwhite females, ages sixteen to nineteen, and 14 percent of ages twenty to twenty-four, unemployed.

These figures show improvements over 1977 projections for all categories except the older white males, "but they are still too high and require immediate attention," Mayor White said.

Boston is expected to receive $4 to $5 million in youth employment funds from the $1 billion federal package. One element expected to be applicable to Boston's needs is the Youth Employment Demonstration Programs section, which offers part-time work during the school year to youths, ages sixteen to eighteen, as an incentive to stay in school, and full-time work in the summer.

CITY RECIPIENT OF $25 MILLION

*Mayor White Announces Water and Sewer Commission Delivers
$25 Million to City Treasury*

Mayor Kevin H. White, has announced that the newly appointed Boston Water and Sewer Commission has delivered $25,233,369.28 to the city's Collector-Treasurer following the issuance of $45.5 million in Guaranteed Bond Anticipation Notes to six banks, four of them local.

The notes, which bear six percent annual interest, mature December 31, 1979. This note issue was authorized at a meeting of the Commission on August 4.

Notes were purchased by the following banks, in the amounts listed below:

The banks and the principal amount of their notes is as follows:

Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, $21,840,000; Continental Illinois National Bank & Trust Company of Chicago, $13,650,000; The First National Bank of Boston, $6,370,000; State Street Bank and Trust Company, $910,000; New England Merchants National Bank, $1,820,000; and Shawmut Bank of Boston, N.A., $910,000.

The $25 million payment to the city eliminated the deficit in the water and sewer accounts as of June 30, 1977, thereby averting the necessity for the city to finance that deficit out of 1978 taxes. Had the city been unable to eliminate the deficit in this manner, it would have had to raise the tax rate by $13 to $15.

POLICE DEPARTMENT ORDERS

July 26.

Special Order No. 77-78

To: All Bureaus, Divisions, Districts, Offices, Sections, and Units.

Copies to: All Superintendents, Deputy Superintendents, and Directors.

Special Order 75-109, dated October 10, 1975 (Hackney Carriage Violation Tags) is hereby rescinded and replaced with the following.

It is the duty of all police officers to observe the movements of hackney carriages and at all times to insure that the rules and regulations governing such carriages and their drivers are obeyed.

The taxicab industry has been under attack due to the poor condition of some of its equipment and gross violations of the hackney carriage rules and regulations by certain unscrupulous drivers and from the volume of complaints being received at the Hackney Carriage Office, it is apparent that drastic action must be taken to protect the public interest.

Probably no single incident has occurred to tarnish the public image of the taxicab industry more than the recent installation in a few taxicabs of illegal fare escalating devices and determined steps must continue to be taken to constantly monitor all taximeters to insure the integrity of fare recordings.

Offenders who are complained of for overcharging, refusing fares, not keeping waybills, unkempt appearance, or operating a taxicab unfit for public occupancy will be summarily dealt with.

Indicated below is a list of the most common violations of the hackney carriage rules and regulations.

Overcharging; refusing fare; soliciting extra passengers; overloading cab stand; soliciting for prostitute; unkempt appearance of driver; unsealed meter; not wearing badge; not keeping waybill; flag up, passenger in cab; cab unsuitable for public occupancy; no medallion; no rate card; no partition.

A high priority has been placed upon this program designed to upgrade the quality and appearance of all licensed taxicabs and their drivers and as a means of achieving this goal, therefore, effective August 10, 1977, every police officer in the department will be provided with Hackney Carriage Violation Tag, B.P.D. Form No. 1725, revised, to insure compliance by all owners and drivers with the provisions of the rules and regulations.

All police officers shall, whenever there has been a hackney violation, fill out Form 1725 completely and give to the operator the white copy of the tag with instructions to report to the Inspector of Carriages, first floor, Police Headquarters, 154 Berkeley Street.

The Hackney Carriage Violation Tag, B.P.D. Form 1725 has been revised to include both the name and address of the owner and the operator of the cab, the VIN, make and year of the vehicle involved, and the signature of the offender. Also included is a warning of failure to appear as directed will result in the suspension of the medallion and/or hackney license. The revised violation tag is in triplicate to be distributed in the following manner:

1. The White copy or the Original is given to the operator after he signs the same.

2. The Blue copy or Second copy is forwarded in the next department mail to the office of the Inspector of Hackney Carriages. (It is important that this copy be forwarded as soon as possible for processing.)

3. The Yellow or Third copy is kept on file at the district or unit which issued the violation tag.

There is a sufficient supply of violation tags for every uniformed member of the department and commanding officers are directed to maintain an accurate log indicating which series of numbered tags have been issued to each officer.

The taxicab industry, with its 1,525 cabs and upwards of 6,000 drivers, has a vast potential for the public benefit and examples of their past achievements in this area are well documented.

Accordingly, a high degree of cooperation in this endeavor by the police and by the cab operators should prove mutually beneficial to all concerned.

Frustration is a bald-headed hippie.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Purchasing Division GAS PUMP SYSTEM

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Invitation to bid on proposals for furnishing gas pump system installation, Proposal 466, to the Public Facilities Department was advertised in the City Record. Subsequently, the only bid received was publicly opened and read in this office on March 2, 1977.

The bid of the only bidder was irregular because it was received late at the Purchasing Division.

Inasmuch as there was only one bidder, authority is requested to dispense with further publicly advertising for bids and award a contract, without public advertisement, to New England Petroleum Equipment Company, the only bidder.

The amount of the contract is not to exceed $13,226, net 30.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK F. CHIN,
Purchasing Agent.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

RAZING OF BUILDINGS

Community Development Block Grant

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow:

344-350 Washington Street, Ward 22. Emergency bid submitted in bid box — one copy to Auditing Department. Bid box opened by Mr. Vey's office. These buildings are in an unsafe and dangerous condition, a hazard to the general public.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

John J. Duane Co., Inc., $10,500;
Napoli Wrecking Co., Inc., $15,731;
Circlepower Demolition Corporation, $14,460; Mystic Building Wrecking, $19,449.

John J. Duane Co., Inc., 600 Southern Artery, Quincy, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in one administrative cost to the city rather than what would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case in a contract price of over $2,000, or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $10,500, to John J. Duane Co., Inc., 600 Southern Artery, Quincy, Mass.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD L. GRANARA, JR.,
For Building Commissioner.

Project No. 24

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow:

40 Field Street, Ward 4; 179 Bolton Street, Ward 6; 157A West Sixth Street, Ward 6; 159 West Sixth Street, Ward 6; 128 Buttonwood Street, Ward 7; 294 Dudley Street, Ward 8; 296 Dudley Street, Ward 8; 298 Dudley Street, Ward 8; 368 Dudley Street, Ward 8; 372 Dudley Street, Ward 8; 374 Dudley Street, Ward 8.

376 Dudley Street, Ward 8; 590 Dudley Street, Ward 8; 592-596 Dudley Street, Ward 8; 596A-598 Dudley Street, Ward 8; 600-602 Dudley Street, Ward 8; 604-606 Dudley Street, Ward 8; 18 Leyland Street, Ward 8; 26-28 Dorr Street, Ward 9; 19 Oakland Street, Ward 9; 50-52 Chestnut Avenue, Ward 10.

29 Darling Street, Ward 10; 725-727 Parker Street, Ward 10; 13 Round Hill

Street, Ward 10; 19-21 Sachem Street, Ward 10; 264 Amory Street, Ward 11; 195 Boylston Street, Ward 11; 52 Brookley Street, Ward 11; 3 Jess Street, Ward 11; 6 Jess Street, Ward 11; 41 Rossmore Road, Ward 11.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Circlepower Demolition Corporation, $88,935; Napoli Wrecking Co., Inc., $94,900; Mystic Building Wrecking Co., Inc., $88,100; John J. Duane Co., Inc., $100,260.

Mystic Building Wrecking Co., Inc., 265 Carter Street, Chelsea, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in one administrative cost to the city rather than what would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case in a contract price of over $2,000, or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $38,100, to Mystic Building Wrecking Co., Inc., 265 Carter Street, Chelsea, Mass.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD L. GRANARA, JR.,
For Building Commissioner.

Contract awarded to second low bidder, D. Clancy & Sons, because R & L Construction misinterpreted the number of openings requiring boarding up and have asked to be released from their bid.

D. Clancy & Sons, 339 Dorchester Street, South Boston, Mass. 02127, has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

LADDER 4 REPAIRS

DEAR SIR:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award to Mass. Truck Body & Trailer, Inc., 60 Arlington Street, Chelsea, Mass., the task of performing extensive repairs to Ladder 4, 224T, in the amount of $2,082.68, on Service Order No. 7055-77.

The service order is covered under Contract No. RS 001 for repetitive services for the year 1976-1977.

On November 15, 1976, the City Auditor and the Law Department gave permission to the Fire Department to follow this procedure due to the emergency nature of the work which involves critical fire-fighting equipment and which exceeds the $2,000 limitation.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE H. PAUL,
Fire Commissioner.

FIREBOAT REPAIRS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I hereby request your Honor's authorization to award a contract, without public advertising, to Munro Drydock, Inc., 1 Winnisimmet Street, Chelsea, Mass., for the emergency repair of fireboat "St. Florian."

On March 11, 1977, at 10:58 A.M., while in the process of searching for a body in the water off Long Island, the fire boat struck an unknown submerged object which totally disabled the propulsion system of the boat.

Calls were made to the shipyards which are able to perform this type of work. The Bromfield Shipyard and the Bethlehem Yard were not available for at least one to two weeks. Such a delay was unacceptable to this department due to the necessity of maintaining fire protection along our waterfront. Munro Drydock, Inc. was the only shipyard which could immediately make the necessary inspection, assessment, and repair of the damaged boat.

Because of the emergency nature of this work, I feel that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement. Therefore, I request permission to award a contract to Munro Drydock, Inc., in the amount not to exceed $10,350.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE H. PAUL,
Fire Commissioner.

On November 15, 1976, the City Auditor and the Law Department gave permission for the Fire Department to follow this procedure due to the emergency nature of the work which involves critical fire-fighting equipment and which exceeds the $2,000 limitation.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE H. PAUL,
Fire Commissioner.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT

ESTROGEN RECEPTOR ASSAY

DEAR SIR:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals,

I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Herbert H. Wotiz, M.D., Boston University School of Medicine, Room L-518, 80 East Concord Street, Boston, Mass. 02118, for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $2,000.

Under this contract Herbert H. Wotiz, M.D., will perform estrogen receptor assay (binding), at a cost of $75 each.

Justification for estrogen receptor assay is based on the following benefits which under it accrue to patients:

Tissues which respond to estrogenic hormones are known to contain a specific receptor protein which is necessary as an initial step in carrying out the function of the hormone. In the absence of such a receptor, estrogen can no longer cause the growth of the tissue involved. In the past three years, it has been demonstrated that breast cancers can be divided into hormone dependent and hormone independent tumors purely on the basis of the presence or relative absence of these estrogen receptors. Since patients whose tumors are hormone dependent may respond favorably to a series of hormonal manipulations (ovariectomy, adrenalectomy, hypophysectomy, hormone treatment, etc.) and those with hormone independent tumors do not respond to such manipulation, it is of considerable importance to the patient to obtain early knowledge of the character of the tumor. Until now, patients are selected more or less randomly for treatment and when no response is obtained, after a few weeks or months, therapy is changed. Such an approach frequently is deleterious to the patient. Even worse, removal of ovaries or adrenal glands without knowledge of the tumor's character may expose the patient (and her insurance company) to unnecessary surgical risk and expense. The estrogen receptor assay thus allows early and rational selection of patients for appropriate therapy and most importantly can prevent non-productive ablative procedures. A very high correlation between assay results and therapeutic results exists.

This specialized test is not offered at Leary Laboratory, Clin Chem, or Boston Medical Laboratory.

Therefore, inasmuch as this contract is of a highly specialized nature and as Herbert H. Wotiz, M.D., is eminently qualified to perform these tests at a reasonable cost to the city, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

CHROMOSOME TESTING

DEAR SIR:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals,

I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Leonard Atkins, M.D., Chromosome Laboratory, Burnham 706, Massachusetts General Hospital, 32 Fruit Street, Boston, 02114, for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $3,050.

Under this contract Leonard Atkins, M.D., will perform specialized chromosome testing at a cost of $150 per test. Testing will be clinically screened by Dr. Tishler. One other physician associated with the Fernald School is known to conduct these tests in this area at a cost of $300 per test.

Therefore, inasmuch as this contract is of a highly specialized nature and as Leonard Atkins is eminently qualified to perform these services at a reasonable cost to the city, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

SERVICING OF INSTRUMENTS

DEAR SIR:

An invitation for bids for providing a repair, maintenance, and replacement service for all instruments used in the operating rooms at Boston City Hospital was advertised in the City Record, on October 25, 1976, and bids were to be publicly opened and read aloud on November 18, 1976. No bids were submitted.

Tuzik Surgical Instruments has previously supplied these services in a very satisfactory manner on service order requests and declared its willingness to continue work under the terms of city contract.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, as in my opinion no useful purpose would be served in re-advertising for bids, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with further public advertising and to award this contract, without advertising, to Tuzik Surgical Instruments for the period January 1, 1977, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $1,695.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

PARASITE TESTS, ETC.

DEAR SIR:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Matthew A. Derow, M.D., Instructional Building, Room 504, 80 East Concord Street, Boston, Mass. 02118, for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $2,250.

Under this contract Matthew A. Derow, M.D., will conduct ova and parasite tests at a cost of $5 or less per test, a substantial saving compared to the $11 for the same test which is suggested by Leary Laboratory, or the $10 by Boston Medical Laboratory. Furthermore, tests under this contract will be performed at the Boston City Hospital Gastrointestinal Laboratory by a qualified physician thereby eliminating the need for training and hiring a part-time technician at a cost in excess of $5,500 per year, and the expense associated with the mandatory, periodic, physician input when interpreting results.

Therefore, inasmuch as this contract is of a highly specialized nature and since Matthew A. Derow, M.D., is eminently suited to perform the required tests at a reasonable cost to the city, no benefit would inure to the city by publicly advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

MOVERS SERVICES

DEAR SIR:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to C. Walsh Movers, 100 Southampton Street, Boston, Mass. 02118, in an amount not to exceed $6,413 for the period February 5, 1975, through, February 17, 1975.

Under this contract C. Walsh Movers is to provide the manpower, materials, and equipment to perform all the work incidental and necessary to move all furniture and chattel from the offices of the Community Medical Services; the Community Dental Program; the Health Unit Maintenance; and the Director of Local Health Services, located at East Newton Street, Franklin Square House, Boston, to the Phillips House, administration basement, and Albany Street warehouse in Boston. The Community Dental Program was approved to be moved by contract. Because of short notice and as the hospital movers had been previously committed to move all laboratories into a consolidated laboratory in the Medical Building, and were otherwise found to be under-equipped to satisfactorily perform the move of the other aforementioned health services, it was accomplished by service order. Informal bids were obtained from the following companies:

C. Walsh Movers, Community Dental Program, $1,272; Community Medical Service, $1,832; Health Unit Maintenance, $1,832; Director of Local Health Services, $1,075; Packing Materials Combined Areas, $402.

E. Hinds, Community Dental Program, —; Community Medical Service, $2,000; Health Unit Maintenance, $2,000; Director of Local Health Services, $1,225; Packing Materials Combined Areas, —.

Metropolitan Moving, Community Dental Program, —; Community Medical Service, $2,000; Health Unit Maintenance, $2,000; Director of Local Health Services, $1,300; Packing Materials Combined Areas, —.

C. Walsh having been low bidder in all cases and each move at the time in question being viewed as a distinct and individual service, it was considered sufficient to proceed with the use of service orders, regardless of the fact that all service orders were sent simultaneously.

The interpretation by the Auditing Department, however, differed insofar as all moves are being considered as one requiring ordinary contract procedures.

The former Assistant Deputy Commissioner of Management Services, Joseph F. Welch, is no longer with the Department of Health and Hospitals because of a reduction in services, therefore, despite a diligent search, documentation of all negotiations remains imperfect. However, as C. Walsh has completed performance under the aforementioned agreements two years ago, and as the sole duty remaining thereunder is for the city to pay, and as no useful purpose could be accomplished by further insistence on public advertising, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to C. Walsh Movers under the terms and conditions stated above.

Very truly yours,

DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

COMPUTER TERMINALS, ETC.

DEAR SIR:

An invitation for bids for rental and maintenance of computer terminals and controllers for use in patient registration, collection of billing data, and appointment scheduling at Boston City Hospital, for the period January 1, 1977, through December 31, 1977, was advertised in the City Record on November 29, 1976. Bids were publicly opened and read aloud on December 23, 1976. The bid package sent to all interested bidders indicated an award would not be made for partial proposals. Cost figures were also requested for purchase of the terminals. The following bids were submitted in response to the advertisement:

Computer Optics, Inc., Berkshire Industrial Park, Bethel, CT 06801, rental per month (one-year term), $7,680; purchase, $182,307.

Genesis One Computer Corp., 300 E. 44th Street, New York, NY 10017, (two-year term), $8,913 — equipment improperly configured as per bid package.

IBM Corporation, 610 Lincoln Street, Waltham, MA 02154, (one-year term), $9,563; purchase, $219,374.

Memorex Corporation, 470 Tottenpotten Road, Waltham, MA 02154, (two-year term), $3,900 — disqualified because they did not bid all the equipment requested.

Sanders Associates, Inc., Riverside Office Park, Riverside Road, Weston, Mass., (four-year term), $6,971; purchase, $217,912.50.

Following discussions with Public Facilities, it was established that the equipment to be used in the new Out-patient Department being completed at Boston City Hospital, could be purchased using available money from the bond issue.

Because the contract would, therefore, be for purchase rather than rental of computer equipment, it was particularly important to select a vendor with proven performance for this long-term commitment. The two low bidders, Computer Optics and Sanders provided cost figures for purchase and rental equipment in their bid proposals.

The products of all qualified bidders were examined for our minimum requirements, ease of use for our applications, dependability, maintenance, and user satisfaction. The reputation of qualified bidders was reviewed through personal contact and industry surveys.

Our conclusion is that Computer Optics, the low bidder, would not be as desirable a choice for a long-term commitment; the next low bidder, Sanders, was deemed vendor of choice.

In the course of evaluation of the bids, additional, desirable facts about Sanders equipment and capabilities not specifically enumerated in the bid package were discovered. Qualities found desirable in Sanders equipment have the capacity to make data entry faster and potentially more accurate for our data clerks.

In order to fully exploit the capabilities of the Sanders equipment, the terminals were rearranged to handle the original fifty displays and six printers, plus two more printers (for a total of eight printers.) Sanders responded on January 6, 1977, with a final configuration which allowed Boston City Hospital to benefit from options offered by Sanders as well as allowing for a cost savings of nearly $18,000, using the prices described in the original bid.

As the purchase of Sanders equipment appears to be in the public interest, and the Department of Health and Hospitals being in favor of the final configuration proposed by Sanders, I David L. Rosenbloom, Commissioner, in accordance with the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals at its meeting of June 22, 1976, hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to reject all bids and award a contract, without advertising, for purchase of fifty displays, eight printers and seven controllers to Sanders Data Systems Groups' at a cost to the city of $199,972.50.

Very truly yours,

DAVID L. ROSENBLUM,
Commissioner.

The

premises are needed by this department in connection with the Housing Improvement Program, a federally funded program.

The proposed lease is for a term of four months — March 1, 1977, to June 30, 1977 — renewable at the discretion of the lessee with the provision that if any tax year commencing with the year 1977, the real estate taxes on the land and building, of which the demised premises are a part, are in excess of the amount of the real estate taxes thereon for the year 1977, lessee will pay to lessor as additional rent hereunder, when and as designated by notice in writing to Lessor, 50 percent of such excess that may occur in each year of the term of this lease and proportionately for any part of a calendar year during the term hereof. The proposed rental fee is $175 per month.

It is my opinion that nothing is to be gained by public advertising as this location is suitable for conducting program activities.

Very truly yours,

JOHN A. VITAGLIANO,
Commissioner.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby respectfully request permission to dispense with public advertising in the City Record, for the leasing of an estimated 400 square feet of space in the building located at 436 Blue Hill Avenue, Roxbury, and to enter into a lease with Leo Fletcher of 488 Blue Hill Avenue, Roxbury, for this space. The premises are needed by this department in connection with the Housing Improvement Program, a federally funded program.

The proposed lease is for a term of three months — April 1, 1977, to June 30, 1977 — with two consecutive options on the part of the city to extend the term for an additional year. The proposed rental fee is $160 per month.

It is my opinion that nothing is to be gained by public advertising as this location is suitable for conducting program activities.

Very truly yours,

JOHN A. VITAGLIANO,
Commissioner.

pitals will provide classroom training and on-the-job training for approximately 200 economically disadvantaged Boston residents in hospital-based, allied health occupations.

Since few organizations would be capable of operating programs of this scope in the city, and because Department of Health and Hospitals will also provide a ready source of jobs for graduates of these programs, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
JOSEPH R. DUGGAN,
Manpower Administrator.

CONSULTING SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to Allen Toothaker, 9 Pearson Road, Somerville, Mass., to provide consulting services to the Manpower Administration. Funds for this contract will be provided from a federal government grant to the City of Boston through the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 203. The effective dates of operation of this contract will be from April 1, 1977, through September 30, 1977, at a total cost not to exceed $12,000, at a per-diem rate of $85.

Under the terms of the proposed contract, Mr. Toothaker will assist in the development and initial operation of the Job Training Center within the Boston Marine Industrial Park. Specifically, his tasks will involve the designing of an administrative system to comply with CETA requirements and the implementation of Manpower services activities, including client intake, assessment, referral, counseling, job development, and placement.

Mr. Toothaker, former CETA director for the City of Cambridge, brings extensive manpower experience to this endeavor and, as a result, it is my opinion that no purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
JOSEPH R. DUGGAN,
Manpower Administrator.

MAYOR'S OFFICE

TV PROGRAM PRODUCTION

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $21,500, to Public Interest Communication Services, Inc., Cambridge, Mass. Payment for this contract will be made from the Community Development Innovative Projects Program Fiscal Year 1976 Grant No. B-76-51-25-0002.

Under the terms of the agreement, Public Interest Communication Services, Inc. will provide best efforts to coproduce two thirty-minute television programs with a local commercial television station. The period of performance shall be from March 1, 1977, to June 30, 1977, and shall not, in any event, extend beyond June 30, 1977, without prior written approval from the city.

The Innovative Projects Program Grant was awarded to the city on the basis of a competitive application based in part on the previous work of William Harris, principal of Public Interest Communication Services, whose resume was included as part of the application. Mr. Harris has coproduced television programs about Boston's neighborhoods with local commercial stations and participated in drafting the application which won this grant. Based on these facts, and due to the professional nature of the services, public advertisement would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,
KATHARINE D. KANE,
Deputy Mayor.

OFFICE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

SERVICES TO YOUTHS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with public advertising, and to award a contract to the Boston Teen Center Alliance, Incorporated, 73 Hemenway Street, Boston, Mass. 02115, in an amount not to exceed $34,557, for the period January 1, 1977, through June 30, 1977.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to grants received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control Act and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 98-83).

The Teen Center Alliance concept grew out of the recommendations of the Department of Youth Services/United Community Services (DYS/UCS) task force. A group of approximately ninety social service agencies came together in late 1971 to, among other things, discuss what gaps existed in services to youths and to attempt to alleviate them. As a result of research done by the task force, it was discovered that there existed a number of teen centers across the city that were struggling to survive due to (1) scant financial and programmatic resources; (2) poor management; and (3) a lack of organization and support.

The Alliance was created for the express purpose of bringing these teen centers together into a loose confederation in order that they might form a more viable network of services for the youth of Boston. Teen Center Alliance provides the centers with both fiscal and programmatic support while acting as a vehicle for the channeling of funds from the city to the various teen centers. By having a central office that advocates for the individual teen centers, the centers have been able to attract funds from private, nonprofit, and federal sources.

The Boston Teen Center Alliance over the past four years has demonstrated its ability to provide services to teen centers that no other agency in the City of Boston is equally qualified to do. Special programs in the areas of education, grant management, staff training, etc., have been developed by the Boston Teen Center Alliance specifically to meet the needs of the centers.

Because of the continuation nature of the services requested to fulfill this contract and the unique professional capabilities that the Boston Teen Center Alliance, Inc., possesses, I recommend that the competitive bidding requirements be waived in the awarding of this contract.

Respectfully,
DONALD A. MCGOWAN,
Director.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As Director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with public advertising, and to award a contract to the Roxbury Children's Services, Incorporated, 22 Elm Hill Avenue, Dorchester, Mass., in an amount not to exceed $38,180, for the period February 26, 1977, through December 31, 1977.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83), and further amended by the Crime Control Act of 1976 (P.L. 94-503).

The purpose of the grant is to allow Roxbury Children's Services, Incorporated to begin a program to provide twenty early offenders from Boston Juvenile Court with counseling and part-time, work experience in the human services field.

This program was chosen for funding through an extensive competitive process involving both the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice (MOCJ) and the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice (MCCJ). This will be a continuation program with the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice.

In the spring of 1975, M.O.C.J. developed a document, a Request for Proposals (RFP) which outlined specific populations which were in critical need of services, and services which were, in general, lacking in the Boston area. This RFP was mailed to approximately 100 agencies, both public and private, and individuals who responded to a notice, sent to 200 agencies and individuals, which stated the availability of funds and the RFP.

Of the 100 agencies and individuals who requested the RFP, thirty-two submitted proposals. All the proposals were reviewed and evaluated by four staff persons. Twelve proposals were selected as most promising, i.e., met the RFP specifications and demonstrated the quality and structure needed to compete for funding on a statewide basis. After extensive review by MOCJ and MCCJ, this program was one selected for funding. The proposal and review process was repeated in 1976.

As this program was selected for funding only after undergoing an extensive and rigorous competitive process at both the city and state levels, I request that no further formal bidding be required.

Respectfully,

DONALD A. MCGOWAN,
Executive Director.

DRUG TREATMENT SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

As director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your written authority to dispense with advertising the award of a contract to the Boston University Medical Center, in an amount not to exceed $13,471, for the period May 1, 1977, to October 31, 1977.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Street Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83), and the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1972 (P.L. 94-503).

The purpose of the contract is to continue funding the Drug Screening Board which operates in the Roxbury District Court to offer drug treatment alternatives to drug dependent persons coming before the court. The Drug Screening Board is a cooperative effort among drug treatment agencies and court officials to use all available information to match a client's needs with appropriate treatment recommendations.

Roxbury District Court is within the Boston University Mental Health catchment area. Mental Health and Medical Center personnel have been working closely with court officials and court clinic personnel in addressing problems of common interest and concern. The university, acting through the Medical Center, has the administrative capability and expertise to meet the needs overlapping and sometimes complex agency jurisdictions.

In view of these unique qualifications and interest of the Boston University Medical Center, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,

DONALD A. MCGOWAN,
Executive Director.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT

SHARED UTILITIES COSTS

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your written approval to dispense with proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to award to Federated Dorchester Neighborhood Houses, Inc. (Federated of 1353 Dorchester Avenue, Dorchester, Mass.) a contract for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $15,000.

The Parks and Recreation Department owns and operates a swimming pool at the above address in a premises connected to Federated property by a shared, locker room facility. This department seeks to renew its contract with Federated for the purchase from Federated of utilities utilized for the operating of the city pool at the above premises for the current fiscal year. The utilities are supplied to Federated by the servicing utility companies and the city will pay Federated a share of the billed cost, proportional to the actual use of such services, and set forth in the following formula:

Heat, City, 29.05 percent, Federated, 70.95 percent.

Electricity, City, 30.20 percent, Federated, 69.80 percent.

Water, City, 68.00 percent, Federated, 32.00 percent.

In view of the fact that Federated has supplied the city with necessary utilities supplied to them by servicing utility companies in the past, it is my opinion that public advertisement would serve no useful purpose. Charge to 1-11-41 (29).

Very truly yours,

PETER G. MEADE,
Commissioner.

POLICE DEPARTMENT MEDICAL SERVICES

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request authorization to dispense with public bidding in the award of a contract to Dr. Isaac Taylor, an internal medicine specialist with a practice at the North End Health Clinic, not to exceed the amount of $20 per hour for ten hours per week, or $3,600, for the period of time commencing March 1, 1977, through June 30, 1977.

The purpose of this contract is to provide for medical examination of present and prospective officers to aid in departmental decisions relating to:

1. determination of fitness of injured or ill officers for return to light or full duty.
2. distinguishing between on- and off-duty injuries and illnesses of officers.
3. selection of officers from applicants.
4. promotion of officers.

Previous departmental attempts to either maintain a physician as a full-time employee, or to contract with the facilities and staff of a local hospital, have proved unsatisfactory. It has been very difficult to hire a well-qualified physician for full-time work, because of the salary rate and the interest of most well-qualified physicians in maintaining some private practices.

Our recent attempts to arrange these services through the Boston City Hospital have also been discouraging. The department's needs have not been met.

Their workload, administrative problems the orientation of their physicians to treatment rather than evaluation, and the understandable low priority the hospital assigns to the department's needs, have combined to make the arrangement unacceptable. Insufficient time is allocated for officers' visits and there is an inadequate commitment by the physicians.

Under this arrangement we have lost a substantial amount of money as officers have continued to be out on sick or injured leave for substantial periods after they have been fit to return to duty. We have lost several thousand dollars in labor arbitration decisions that award officers injured leave as a result of inadequate medical evidence due to our inability to schedule sufficient medical examinations through Boston City Hospital.

We believe the proposed contract will solve these problems. First, its part-time nature enables the department to select a more qualified physician who wishes to maintain a private practice while it provides greater comprehensiveness via employment of both an orthopedist and an internist. Second, the expiration of a contract, with subsequent renewal, revision, or nonresumption of the terms of agreement, is superior to a longer-term employment relationship, in that we have more flexibility to correct deficiencies of the system. Third, the contract provides sufficient time to schedule all the appointments we require.

Adequate evaluation of the health states of officers is, of course, vital to efficient functioning of the department. With respect to sick and injury leave, it has become even more important because of three troublesome areas. One is the recent expansiveness of conditions for which arbitrators are granting benefits to injured and ill officers through the grievance process. The second area is in the direct relationship between low morale and improper use of sick leave, as exemplified by an officer who, dissatisfied with his transfer from an indoor to outdoor function, calls in sick for a few days or longer. The third area is the continuing need to evaluate injured officers to return them to work as soon as they are fit.

We have recruited applicants for the positions through the New England Journal of Medicine and the Journal of Occupational Health. Dr. Taylor is the most qualified of the applicants for the position of internist. His background includes graduate work at Harvard University and as dean of the University of North Carolina Medical School. Currently he lectures at Harvard. Moreover, he is particularly interested in occupational medicine.

Therefore, because of the advertising already undertaken by the department, and in light of the qualifications of Dr. Taylor, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH M. JORDAN,
Commissioner.

EXAMINATION DEVELOPMENT

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your Honor's written authorization to dispense with public bidding in the award of a contract to McCann Associates, 2755 Philmont Avenue, Huntington Valley, Pennsylvania, not to exceed $5,240.

The purpose of this contract is to develop a written, one-hundred question, multiple-choice examination for the position of sergeant in the Boston Police Department. The Police Department has the responsibility for developing this examination under a delegation agreement reached with the Massachusetts Division of Personnel Administration.

McCann Associates has provided consultation in public management and examination services to police departments across the country. In addition, they developed the promotional examination for the position of sergeant in the Boston Police Department in 1974. At that time, their work was more than satisfactory and of high quality.

On August 30, 1976, a request for proposal was released to six companies with related experience for the development of upcoming sergeant's and lieutenant's examinations. McCann Associates submitted their proposal on the basis of that request for proposal, the job specification, reading list, and their experience in formulating the last sergeant's examination.

The award of the contract for developing the sergeant's examination is made upon the recommendation of the department's Advisory Board on Examinations and after consultation with the Massachusetts Division of Personnel Administration. The proposal submitted meets the requirements of both parties.

Therefore, because of the unique requirements of this contract, and in light of the qualifications and prior service of McCann Associates, and the fact that an open-bidding procedure was undertaken by this department, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH M. JORDAN,
Police Commissioner.

DEAR MAYOR WHITE:

I respectfully request your Honor's written authorization to dispense with public bidding in the award of a contract to Yarger and Associates, Inc., 2380 Mary Street, Falls Church, Virginia, not to exceed $6,400.

The purpose of this contract is to develop a written, one-hundred item, multiple-choice examination for the position of lieutenant in the Boston Police Department. The Police Department has the responsibility for developing this examination under a delegation arrangement reached with the Massachusetts Division of Personnel Administration.

Yarger Associates has had broad experience in the examination area, having provided personnel and management services to municipalities and police departments across the country. Their proposal was accompanied by impressive client references and credentials.

On August 30, 1976, a request for proposal was released to six companies with related experience for the development of the upcoming sergeant's and lieutenant's examinations. Yarger and Associates submitted their proposal on the basis of that letter, the job specification, and their long experience in supplying examination services to police departments.

The award of the contract for developing the lieutenant's examination is being made upon the recommendation of the department's Advisory Board on Examinations and after consultation with the Massachusetts Division of Personnel Administration. The proposal submitted meets the requirements of both parties.

Therefore, because of the unique requirements of this contract, and in light of the qualifications of Yarger and Associates, and the fact that an open-bidding procedure was undertaken by this department, it is believed that public bidding would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH M. JORDAN,
Police Commissioner.

REAL PROPERTY DEPARTMENT PARKING FACILITY REPAIRS

YOUR HONOR:

Further my letter of September 10, 1976, regarding the structural condition of the above parking facility, Engineer Design Group, Inc., 48 Inman Street, Cambridge, Mass., submitted the following report:

"Deterioration and spalling of concrete were noticeable in several areas; main beams were cracked and in a state of failure; reinforcements in beams were exposed and unprotected. The condition of the structure was dangerous to the general public and very much in need of emergency repair."

The report offers the following conclusions and recommendations:

"Conclusions and recommendations — The deterioration and spalling of the concrete pan slabs represent a threat to safety of persons and vehicles passing below these areas. Falling pieces of concrete, as described in paragraph 6, can cause serious bodily harm. All such areas should be sheathed immediately with plywood or some similar material to protect the areas below.

"The deterioration of the concrete beams represents a more significant structural problem. Loss of bonding between reinforcing steel and the concrete, along with the deterioration of the reinforcing steel, has subsequently seriously weakened the load-carrying capacity of the beams. This inadequacy of safe load capacity could result in a failure and ultimate collapse in these areas. The following locations were noted as exhibiting sufficient distress that our recommendations would be such that persons and vehicles be prohibited from occupying any space above or below them:

1. Level C, between Lines 2 and 3, C and D.
2. Level C, line 2, between D and F.
3. Level C, line 3, between F and G.
4. Level 1, line 4, between C and D.
5. Level 1M, line 3, between D and F.
6. Line 2, line 3, between F and G.
7. Line 2, lines 5 and 6, between E and F.

"Finally, the above-noted areas should be shored as soon as possible. Temporary shoring procedures are presently being developed to assure the safety of the general public. It should be noted that the shoring presently being designed is to assure the adequacy of the structure and not as a convenience to regain lost parking area."

In view of the foregoing and in the interests of public safety, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising to retain the services of The Quincy Corporation, General Contractors, 33 Newport Avenue, No. Quincy, Mass., 02171, a highly respected and experienced firm to make emergency repairs and install shoring as shown on the attached plans. (see vote of Real Property Board.)

The total cost of this contract will not exceed $17,000. Payment will be made out of the Parking Facilities Fund, without appropriation, as allowed under chapter 474 of the Acts of 1946, section 4, as amended.

Very truly yours,
JOANNE A. PREVOST,
Commissioner of Real Property,
Chairman, Real Property Board.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

"DAYS IN THE ARTS" PROGRAM

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to the Boston Symphony Orchestra for a program called "Days in the Arts," to be presented to children from the Boston Public Schools between January 1, 1977, and August 31, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $54,000.

The contractor agrees to provide to a total of 300 children from selected middle and elementary schools in Boston — especially those declared racially imbalanced — an opportunity to explore the cultural resources of Boston and the Berkshire area. The children from Boston will be working with a smaller number of children from Brookline, Newton, and Topsfield during the course of this project.

Because of the need to initiate the program during the present academic school year, and because of the special resource and unique expertise of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and because they have been providing this service to the school children of Boston for many years, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids. Funds are to be expended from chapter 536, section 8, Project No. 77-MEP-523.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

PROGRAMS EVALUATION

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The company has been selected, because the evaluation proposal submitted included a superior evaluation design; precise data collection procedures, instruments, analysis, and scheduling; and a diversified staff experienced in educational evaluation. The contractor has exhibited past superior performance in Title I program evaluation.

Therefore, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Educational Planning and Research for the evaluation of the English as a Second Language Program, during school year 1976-1977, at a cost not to exceed $12,000.

The contractor has been selected for this particular evaluation, because the evaluation proposal submitted was superior to others in terms of (1) its study of program processes as well as of changes in students' ability to use the English language; and (2) the appropriateness of the sampling procedures. Experienced bilingual staff are employed in the conduct of the evaluation process.

Therefore, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Educational Research Corporation, for the evaluation of the ESEA Title I, Elementary Early Childhood Project, during school year 1976-1977, at a cost not to exceed $11,632.

The contractor shall complete evaluation procedures under the direction of the Department of Title I Programs, Office of Research and Evaluation. Such procedures will include on-site classroom visitations and observations, related interviews of personnel, preparation of appropriate questionnaires, and data analysis. Contract is to be charged to Title I ESEA, No. 77-035-134, 11-P202-337-9111-02.

The consulting firm, Educational Research Corporation, has been selected because the company can offer superior identification of data collection procedures for the multischool programs and has diversified professional staff available for data analysis and summation reporting.

Therefore, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

The contractor will work with the community field coordinators to develop a productive relationship with each student's home environment as it relates to his school performance.

Because of the need to initiate the In-School Suspension Program during the present academic year and because of the counseling experience of this consultant, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. c. 44, s. 53A, and is made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from the Emergency School Aid Act, Grant No. G00-76-054-63.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

CONSULTANT SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of the Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Boston State College, for consultant services to the Bowditch School in District V, during the period of February 1, 1977, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $6,296.

The contractor shall provide consultant services on a part-time basis to assist in the implementation of a Multisensory Diagnostic Prescriptive Learning Center by offering:

(a) professional and technical assistance for teacher and parent training;

(b) guidance and materials to examine the learning style of students, achievement levels, adjustment to school, etc. for the development of prescriptive program curriculums.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided and Boston State's proven ability in Multisensory Diagnostic Prescriptive Learning, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. ch. 44, sec. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from ch. 636, state-approved Project No. 77-2C-1018.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

CONSULTANT TEACHER SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Melvin T. Atherton, for service as a teacher for the In-School Suspension Program at South Boston High School, during the period of March 7, 1977, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $5,625.

The contractor will teach, design, coordinate, and administer the use of diagnostic materials in math, science, and the related areas. The contractor will formulate academic contracts with each student delineating academic goals and behavioral objectives. The contractor will participate in case conferences with individual teachers, counselors, and community workers involved in the In-School Suspension Program. The contractor will write educational assessments and participate in core evaluation meetings for each student.

Because of the need to initiate the program during the present academic year and because of the teaching experience of this consultant, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertising bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. c. 44, s. 53A, and is made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from the Emergency School Aid Act, Grant No. G00-76-054-63.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

CHAPTER 766 SERVICES

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to the Parkway Nursery and Learning Center, Inc., 361 Revere Beach Parkway, Revere, MA 02151, for the providing of special educational services to four Boston public school children in accordance with M.G.L. c. 71B (chapter 766), and the regulations promulgated thereunder, at a cost of $8,640, from July 1, 1976, until June 30, 1977.

The facility will provide thereunder educational services to Boston public school pupils in accordance with each child's educational plan devised for him by the School Department staff.

Because it has been determined that these children are in immediate need of special attention, and due to the professional nature of the services to be performed, and the expertise of the facility in this area, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bids. Payments to this facility will be based on the rate structure established by the Rate Setting Commission of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

EMERGENCY PAINTING WORK

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I request your approval of my action in awarding a contract, without publicly advertising, for painting work in the cafeteria of the Washington Irving School.

On Thursday, April 7, 1977, at approximately 11:30 p.m., vandals broke into the Washington Irving School, 114 Cummins Highway, Roslindale, Mass., and set fire to the building and equipment in the main lunchroom. This caused severe smoke and electrical damage.

Because time is of the essence, so that food can be prepared and served in the cafeteria for the opening of school after the April vacation, April 25, 1977, it is apparent that this work should be done immediately.

Approval has been secured by the Department of Labor and Industries that this is an extreme emergency.

I did solicit four sealed bids from responsible bidders for this work; and they were received as follows:

R. VanPutten Company, $4,200; Cala Painting and Decorating Company $7,000; Charles T. Hart, no bid received; Bello Painting Company, no bid received.

I, therefore, am awarding the contract for this painting work to R. VanPutten Company, in the amount of $4,200.

Respectfully submitted,

ANTHONY L. GALEOTA,
Chief Structural Engineer.

HON. KEVIN H. WHITE. MAYOR OF BOSTON

JOSEPH M. TIERNEY
PRESIDENT. CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 69

MONDAY, AUGUST 29, 1977

NO. 35

Nominees Confirmed For New Commission

Water and Sewer Commission Established — City Receives $25.2 Million.

Mayor White has nominated and the City Council has confirmed the first members of the newly established Boston Water and Sewer Commission. The chairman is John S. Howe, chief executive officer of the Provident Institute for Savings, and the other two members are Michael Rotenberg, president of a real estate management firm, and Melvin B. Miller, publisher and editor of the Bay State Banner.

The Research Bureau had strongly endorsed the creation of the commission in a May 19 special report, in which we pointed out that only 10 percent of the costs of supplying water and sewer services were paid by the users. The remainder became a deficit which had to be made up from property tax revenues. Absent the legislation, the tax rate for 1978 would have been increased by about $12.50.

Among the first achievements of the commission was the sale of $45.5 million in short-term notes, at a rate of 6 percent. Of this sum, $25.2 million was returned to the City of Boston for the accumulated deficit of the program, which otherwise would have had to be raised in property taxes. The remainder will be used for transition-period funding pending the establishment of the new rate structure to pay operating expenses, the MDC annual charge for water used, and $1 million in working capital.

The quality of the commission's appointments and the rate at which the initial notes were sold — with over $35 million of the total taken by non-Boston banks — are encouraging developments. However, recent major water leaks illustrate the need for a professionally managed, properly maintained water system. Revenue loss from non-payment of bills and inadequate metering needs to be reduced. The bureau will monitor the activities of the commission to help achieve these goals, as well as establishing the financial stability of the system based on payment according to water used.

City Audit Announced

A longtime objective of the bureau was achieved with the announcement that the city had selected Coopers & Lybrand to conduct an independent audit of the city's financial condition and management. This is the first such audit in the city's history. The last audit of any kind was done in 1964.

The bureau looks forward to the audit, and to recommendations relating to financial planning, control, and management. More important than the audit itself, however, will be the city's willingness to implement its recommendations. The bureau will seek to insure that the city's present commitment to do so is maintained when the recommendations are actually made.

The audit will cover a three-year period beginning July 1, 1977, and will cost $500,000.

Bureau Proposes New Grading System for School Buildings

In its continuing effort to achieve economies and management improvements in the Boston School Department, the bureau recently recommended to the School Committee that it change the method for grading schools. The grade of a school determines the salary of the senior custodian. Presently, because the School Committee has arbitrarily upgraded a number of schools over past years, staffing and responsibility have little relation to compensation.

The bureau has recommended a change in the grading system to peg the salary of a senior custodian to the number of custodians assigned to his building, which number is itself based on a reasonable and standard formula. The bureau acted because of a motion brought before the School Committee to upgrade two more schools — despite the lack of support by the chief plant engineer, and despite the fact that neither school merits a grade increase. The bureau has asked the committee to adopt the proposed revised grading system and base future decisions solely on the staffing formula.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM FOR CITY EMPLOYEES

Negotiations are being completed with Boston State College to offer various courses leading to a Baccalaureate Degree on a part-time basis for employees of the City of Boston. The courses will be taught in-house using Boston City Hall as a satellite campus. The time of the courses will be from 3:30 to 8:50 P.M., two days per week (Monday and Wednesday). The courses will be geared toward city employees with an emphasis on relating case examples to our needs.

All costs for the program will be assumed by the individual participants. The City of Boston will be prepared to offer reimbursement to participants who satisfactorily complete the courses. The reimbursement schedule is as follows:

1. All employees who receive a grade of "A" for a particular course shall be reimbursed fifty percent (50 percent) of tuition cost.

2. All employees who receive a grade of "B" for a particular course shall be reimbursed thirty-five percent (35 percent) of tuition cost.

3. All employees who receive a grade of "C" for a particular course will be reimbursed twenty-five percent (25 percent) of tuition cost.

Tuition for each course will be seventy-five dollars ($75) plus a one time ten dollar ($10) registration fee.

All requirements for admission to the program remain constant, i.e.

— Applicants for degree status must possess a high school diploma. An equivalency certificate issued by any State Department of Education may be used in lieu of a high school diploma.

— All students within the program will be allowed the same rights, privileges and responsibilities of all students at the college.

— It is planned that four courses will be offered per term. At present, it is planned that the initial semester will start September 19, 1977.

— These courses will be offered at Boston City Hall.

— The programming of the course offerings by semester will be arranged between Boston State College and the city.

All employees interested in applying for these programs should contact Frank A. Holbrook, Training Coordinator, Personnel Division, Administrative Services Department, Room 610, Boston City Hall, Boston, Mass. 02201 in writing by September 7, 1977.

AS WE GET OLDER!

Arts programming for older adults becomes increasingly necessary as the number of senior citizens in this nation grows substantially, percentage wise, each year. There are more than 21 million persons past sixty-five years of age in the United States, over 112,000 in Boston alone. With reduced earning power, fixed incomes, and less mobility for many it is often difficult for these people to actively participate in the arts. Rising costs of admissions to performances, reduced accessibility, and the lack of transportation keep many senior citizens in their homes, out of the theaters, and isolated from the visual arts.

In recent years there has been an increasing awareness of the need for support and programming for the elderly. On the national level there is the National Center on the Arts and the Aging, a program of the National Council on the Aging, Inc. A nonprofit organization, this agency has organized conferences, distributed information, and provided consultation and support to those groups and institutions interested in developing programs specifically geared to senior citizens. The National Endowment for the Arts and the Administration of the Aging (a department of HEW) are currently assessing the demand and need for arts programming and have already allocated some funds to that purpose. Both the Department of Elder Affairs, on a state level, and the Commission of the Elderly Affairs in Boston have worked towards implementation of new programs and upgrading existing projects. The Office of Cultural Affairs has been working on arts programming for the elderly for nearly six years. Both Cultural Programming for Older Adults, our winter program, and Senior Summerthing, operative in July and August, bring the arts to elderly groups mainly through workshop and performances staged in nursing homes and community centers. Organized excursions to theater performances and arts exhibitions bring these people to the arts, thus creating greater audiences.

ARTS/Boston, a Boston-based, nonprofit organization has developed an innovative program to develop better audiences for the performing arts, while accommodating the pocketbooks of senior citizens by offering a voucher service. This program allows senior citizens, as well as other groups, an opportunity to see a series of professional performances in music, dance, and theater, at reduced rates.

There are many benefits to this sort of programming. It provides senior citizens with opportunities for intellectual growth and stimulation. Secondly, workshops and performances revive interest and provide individuals with a new experience. Good arts programming upgrades the level of activity offered to senior citizens, while involving them in a continuing social experience. Finally, it creates greater attendance at arts institutions and larger audiences for the performing arts.

There is much that still needs to be done in the arts for the increasing number of older Americans. Senior citizens must lobby for programming in the arts and demand upgraded programs. Much of the responsibility lies with those who are in decision-making positions in the arts, to recognize the need and implement new programs.

PATRIOTS "POINT" THE WAY

The Boys Clubs of Boston are hoping that the New England Patriots have a big scoring season.

Frito-Lay, Inc., makers of Lay's brand potato chips and Fritos brand corn chips, have teamed with the New England Patriots to aid the Boys Clubs of Boston. Frito-Lay will donate $100 to the Boys Clubs of Boston for every point scored by the Patriots in preseason and regular season games.

This is the second year that Frito-Lay has joined the Patriots to help the Boys Clubs. Last year the clubs received $500 for every touchdown. The Patriots scored sixty-four touchdowns prior to the Oakland play-off where $100 was given for every point. For the season, the Boys Clubs received $34,100.

However, this year the sum should be greater since the money is based on points, according to John Durkin, Frito-Lay division sales manager.

In addition to the more than 60,000 football fans cheering the Patriots in Schaefer Stadium, there will be more than 5,000 youngsters, from all Boston areas, rooting for them to score points.

MAYOR LAUDS OPENING OF MARINE INDUSTRIAL PARK

Mayor Kevin H. White, on August 15, said the opening of the Boston Marine Industrial Park "confirms the new competitive edge of the urban environment" as business and industry return after an exodus to the suburbs.

Mayor White joined with Governor Michael Dukakis, Congressman Joseph Moakley, and State Senator William Bulger in celebrating the transfer of the site of the South Boston Naval Annex to the city through low-cost financing provided by the State Land Bank.

The 167-acre site was deserted in 1973 after the U.S. Navy ship repair facility closed, causing thousands to lose jobs. The city's Economic Industrial Development Corporation (EDIC) began negotiating for the land in 1975 and as talks progressed, a dozen companies employing about 800 workers signed as tenants. For the first time in a half-century, the facility will provide tax revenue for the city — an estimated $4 million annually.

The State Land Bank purchased the site from the federal government and provided a $4.7 million low-interest mortgage for the city to acquire the site in mid-June.

Mayor White saluted all parties involved in the transfer for their cooperation.

"There are three levels of government in this country, and that is what it took to put this project together," Mayor White said.

"I would like to thank Congressman Joseph Moakley for his great help in Washington; Governor Dukakis and State Senator Bulger for the Land Bank which facilitated the transfer; and our own EDIC for the plans and marketing.

"We intend to build on this success with others in locations throughout the city by acquiring federal assistance through the Boston Plan," Mayor White said. "To do so, we will need the kind of cooperation, mutual support, and hard work that made this day possible. If the rest of the Boston Plan enjoys similar success — and we will fight for every federal dollar — it will be due to the kind of effort we see here today.

"Four years ago, when the shipyard closed its gates, there seemed little hope of returning it to productive use. The pessimism was premature. There are already impressive achievements, including:

- The creation of 800 jobs, 60 percent held by residents of Boston;

- The restoration of ship repair facilities which have refitted eighteen ships and poured $30 million into the Boston economy;

- The approval of a Foreign Trade Zone, which will attract further trade and industry; and

- the establishing of a job training center to give unemployed workers skills for the jobs we have created.

"This shipyard represents the reclamation of waterfront that is occurring all over the city. The transformation of an abandoned shipyard into a Boston Marine Industrial Park signals a new era of city vitality. It symbolizes a new realization of urban potential, and appreciation of the pleasures, convenience, and profitability of the city."

Also attending the impressive ceremonies were George Seybolt, EDIC chairman, and Albert Gamal, GSA regional administrator, and federal, state, and city government staff workers who made preparations for the ceremony, tour, and open house saluting the success of the Boston Marine Industrial Park.

The energy crisis is teaching us how many absolute necessities we may run out of that our forefathers never imagined anyone needing in the first place.

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM: ANNUAL "SPRUCE-UP"

The Children's Museum Visitor Center will be closed during September while the staff, armed with buckets, brushes, paint cans, and hammers, give the Visitor Center its annual spruce-up.

The Visitor Center will reopen Saturday, October 1, with two new exhibits and a free grand party from 2-5 P.M.

During September the museum's Resource Center will be open. Teachers, community group leaders, and parents may use the Resource Library, pick up a bagful of craft materials in RECYCLE, sign up for fall courses and workshops or purchase quality books and toys in the Museum Shop.

JERRY LEWIS TELETHON

One of America's greatest entertainment spectacles, the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon, will debut in eastern Massachusetts over WCVB-TV, Channel 5, starting at 9:00 P.M., Sunday, September 4, and ending at 6:30 P.M., Monday, September 5.

The annual supershow, in its 12th year, will feature comedy, music, dance, and reports on the progress being made by the Muscular Dystrophy Association. The show will be broadcast live from Del Webb's Hotel Sahara in Las Vegas. Ed McMahon will again back up Jerry as anchorman.

The Telethon, held to benefit the research and patient service programs of the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA), will be beamed to nearly 200 stations in the continental U. S. and Alaska, and will be seen live via satellite in Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

Arthur Forrest, producer-director of Telethon '77, is helping Jerry line up some of the biggest names in show business for the 12th annual broadcast of the Telethon.

Last year's Telethon raised over $21.7 million for the fight against muscular dystrophy. Jerry Lewis predicts even greater response this year, because, he says, "The generosity of Americans keeps snow-balling. I know the concern will keep growing until cures are found. I eagerly anticipate the Telethon every year—but this year especially we'll be seen and heard more widely than ever before and therefore will give thousands more the opportunity to participate in the battle against muscular dystrophy."

WCVB-TV, Channel 5, will cut away from the network show for ten minutes every hour to introduce leading citizens, physicians and dignitaries, and to present reports on MDA activities in eastern Massachusetts.

POLL REVEALS HUB RESIDENTS' ATTITUDES

Boston's residents are showing renewed confidence in their city after having perceived a period of decline, but they are convinced that the preservation of their neighborhoods is the key to maintaining and building on the city's reputation for livability.

In a wide-ranging poll of 2,500 city residents in seventeen neighborhoods, Bostonians ranked their observations about conditions in their neighborhoods today and in the future on a scale of 1 to 10.

In viewing the future of their city, from an emotional and attitudinal point of view, the residents of Boston have reached a plateau. This watershed in public perceptions of their city represents a significant change in citizen attitudes, which had been trending downward but now have stabilized.

Boston continues to be a proud city, with its residents indicating a clear preference for staying where they are, rather than moving out.

Boston residents have more favorable attitudes toward their individual neighborhoods than toward their city as a whole — expressing both a pride and a commitment to their local communities, regardless of what directions the "rest of the city" may take.

"Busing" represents a major irritant in the minds of Boston residents, and it is this issue that tends to drag down public perceptions of their city. Increasing taxes represent the bulk of all other complaints or criticisms levied against the city government.

Boston residents assign only average ratings to their Mayor, with few rating his administration "excellent" during the city's troubled times — and the majority (60 percent) scoring the Mayor's performance as "good" or "fair." Data analysis suggests that the Mayor bears the brunt of public frustration with the busing issue, and the tax problems that the public clearly identifies as a result of busing.

The study serves a valuable purpose by providing guidelines for the development of governmental priorities in administration activities and budget policies. It serves to confirm the White administration's commitment to the importance of the neighborhoods.

These and other revealing glimpses of the mood of the city residents are found in a study released August 17, by Hart Research Associates, Inc., of Washington, D.C., and approved and distributed by Mayor Kevin H. White.

The poll was commissioned by the city to help officials direct the use of $20 million in Community Development Block Grants obtained from the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and other federal grants being pursued by the White administration.

The administration obtained approval from HUD to use $70,000 in grant money for a survey to assist planning efforts. The poll was conducted last May. Interviews were done by pollsters at residences in all Boston neighborhoods. Each session lasted about a half hour.

Hundreds of useful insights were derived from the interviews:

— 73 percent of city residents are proud of the city as a place to live, but 79 percent have more pride in their neighborhood.

— The flight to the suburbs is overblown. Two-thirds of Boston residents plan to stay where they are. Those who plan to leave are leaving Massachusetts as well.

— Boston's unemployment problem (12 percent overall, 20 percent among blacks, 25 percent among Hispanics) is perceived as affecting the attitudes of Bostonians toward their city, but residents are also concerned about rising taxes, crime, pollution, and busing.

— To remedy these problems, residents feel city spending priority should be on economic development and job training, home improvement, street and sidewalk maintenance, programs for the elderly and police protection.

— While the busing controversy and spinoff racial tensions dominated headlines and concerns of most Bostonians just two years ago, it has slipped from the No. 1 to No. 3 position on Boston's problem list.

— Crime outpaced busing as a negative aspect of living in Boston. Fifteen percent said it was the biggest drawback. By comparison to most other big cities, Boston residents feel fairly safe. Nonetheless, 20 percent have been a victim of crime of person or property in the past twelve months. The poll firm said its statistics show that the affluent, young student or professional executive was the most likely victim.

— High taxes is the number one problem to Boston residents. Fully 20 percent said so. The resentment against taxes is fueled because residents see busing as responsible for recent tax increase.

Residents also offered a number of things they liked about living in Boston, including adequate housing, diverse cultural and social events, good shopping facilities, entertainment and recreational activities for adults and children, sporting events and historical attractions.

Key to enjoying all of these and getting to work is accessible, inexpensive public transportation. More than 50 percent of Bostonians either take public transportation or walk to work.

But while residents feel facilities are important, their decision to live in Boston is primarily based on interpersonal relationships with family, friends, and neighbors. Over 22 percent said good neighbors were a vital benefit of living in the city. Another 24 percent said their roots in the city keep them here.

In its poll interpretation, Hart Research Associates said "it seems that to many residents, the people themselves are what make a good neighborhood. There is nothing that the city can do to make people good neighbors, but the city can set a tone and a direction which creates a spirit of good will."

"In Boston, people are looking for cultural uniformity rather than diversity. Residents have systematically made their decisions on where to live on this basis . . . Good neighbors count more than anything else."

The correlation between neighborhood conditions and attitudes and the demographics of the poll illustrate the contention of urban planners that the key to neighborhood stability is in getting residents to develop a commitment.

— Residents over thirty-five showed much more pride in their neighborhood than those under thirty-five.

— 66 percent of homeowners expressed a lot of pride in their neighborhood, while only 39 percent of renters felt the same way.

— Residents of the older, established Irish and Italian neighborhoods reported more pride than the residents of the less stable black and Hispanic neighborhoods. In all cases, residents who have lived in a neighborhood for more than 10 years and those involved in community activities have much more pride than newcomers or those who are less involved.

Hart Research Associates stressed that: "the most important point is that while many people have criticisms about Boston, most residents believe in their neighborhoods. The longer they have been here, the more likely they are to believe in their neighborhoods. Two neighborhoods exhibit definite problems — Allston/Brighton and Franklin Field/Mattapan," the former with an inordinately large student population and the latter with severe unemployment and a high percentage of urban poor. "In both instances," the poll firm said, "a large percentage of residents have little affinity for their neighborhoods."

In summary, the poll firm offered:

"It is important to put people's attitudes about Boston into context. The city has a lot going for it, not the least of which is a congenial atmosphere in which people feel a certain closeness to one another. In this respect Boston appears to be more like today's smaller cities than the large impersonal cities such as New York and Los Angeles. Boston has been able to retain much of the character of a nineteenth century American city, and this is due in part to the high percentage of natives. Beyond this, Boston is a city in which people have pride and seem to enjoy being a part of. They like the activity and the convenience of living here.

"But like all cities, Boston has its share of drawbacks. The most frequently mentioned liability is the physical environment. People feel the city is dirty, overly noisy, and decaying. Taxes, crime, race, and the high cost of living are also a major concern, but then again, these are problems for any major city. These are the concerns residents would like to see the city government do something about."

MAYOR LAUDS FANEUIL HALL MARKETPLACE

Boston Mayor Kevin H. White on August 26, called the Faneuil Hall Marketplace "one of the most dynamic urban restorations in the country" at the opening of the new South Market and the first anniversary of the New Quincy Market.

The Mayor characterized the success of the rejuvenated marketplace as "an astonishing success story starring the City, the Rouse Company and the 63 small businesses who were willing to take a chance pay off so well for themselves and for all of us."

He presented a bronze plaque honoring the small businesses at the reading: "With appreciation to these 63 merchants who had faith in the restoration of historic Boston and who made the new Quincy Market's first year a resounding success."

At a City Hall reception honoring the 63 merchants, the Mayor said: "The Quincy Market in its first year attracted a phenomenal 30,000 people a day, and we have exceeded expectations for the new South Market and the North Market to will open next year.

"I want to congratulate the Rouse Company and the BRA for their vision and hard work in making this complex a reality," he added.

gether, private enterprise and city government have transformed an again decaying marketplace into an aesthetic and commercial success that exceeded everyone's expectations.

"The Faneuil Hall marketplace has been watched by urban developers all over the United States and it will serve as a model for future projects everywhere. It is a showcase that we can all be proud of."

The Mayor said: "I want to reaffirm the City's commitment to small businesses all over the city . . . in all our neighborhoods as well as downtown."

"It is projects like the RESTORE program and the Neighborhood Business District Program that can accomplish on a smaller scale successes like the one we are celebrating here at Faneuil Hall today," the Mayor said.

The Mayor's Neighborhood Business District Program, organized two years ago, has resulted in a number of vacated buildings being rehabilitated and turned into viable businesses, such as the emergence of the twin cinema from a burnt-out building in South Boston.

The RESTORE program provides for a 20 percent rebate on repairs to storefronts in need of repair. More than 75 individual storefronts have been improved in city neighborhoods under the program.

Mayor White said that "the initiative of small businessmen and women is an extremely vital element in Boston's return to economic prosperity."

"For years," the Mayor said, "the small businessman was practically an endangered species as the corporate and governmental focus was on attracting big business and industry to the cities."

"We are now seeking to create a better commercial balance in our urban environment," the Mayor said. "And it is thriving ventures like Faneuil Hall Market that will make that happen."

NEW APPOINTMENT

Mayor White selects Dr. Mechling of Harvard to head city's Office of Management and Budget.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on August 22, announced the appointment of Dr. Jerry Mechling of Harvard University as Director of the Office of Management and Budget.

Dr. Mechling, 34, was a lecturer on political economy at Harvard. He is founder and president of a consulting firm specializing in policy analysis and environmental problems. He formerly worked with New York City's Environmental Protection Administration as assistant administrator, program analysis and development.

Dr. Mechling's first priority will be to work with Deputy Mayor James Young in strengthening the city's budgetary controls.

"Dr. Mechling's experience in budget and program analysis will be especially valuable as we work to develop long-term means of keeping the tax rate down and to tighten the administration's control over city agencies," Mayor White said. "I expect that he will play a leading role in bringing increased fiscal responsibility and productivity into city government."

The new OMB director will also provide in-depth analysis of budgets to avoid the "meat ax" approach to budget cutting.

"We want to approach the budget systematically, and get away from the natural tendencies of all governments toward crisis decision-making" Mayor White said. "We want a measured, disciplined approach and Dr. Mechling has the experience needed to help us meet that goal."

Dr. Mechling will work closely with line departments to develop and monitor a broad series of management and productivity efforts in city agencies, as well as consolidate improvements already made through the administration's ongoing evaluation of city personnel.

Mayor White said Dr. Mechling has "extremely good credentials to fill this vital position and his expertise in planning, program analysis and budget examination will help us manage the city's resources more efficiently."

Dr. Mechling's consulting firm included as clients the Chairman of the Board of CBS, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, the National Center for Productivity and Quality of Working Life, the U.S. Information Agency and the Committee for Economic Development.

He formerly worked for New York Mayor John Lindsay as a staff aide responsible for liaison with the city's Policy Planning Council and the Environmental Protection Administration, which he later joined as director of program analysis.

He holds a Ph.D. in Public Affairs and a Master's Degree from Princeton University. He is a 1965 cum laude graduate of Harvard University, where he served in 1971-1972 as a Kennedy Fellow in the Institute of Politics. He lives on Beacon Street in Boston.

MAYOR OUTLINES PROPOSED MASSPORT CONTAINER FACILITY PLAN

Mayor Kevin H. White outlined a proposal on August 21, which, if accepted by the Massachusetts Port Authority, could mean the development of a major containerization port within Boston's newly created Marine Industrial Park. The proposal is still another facet of the city's Boston Plan, a blueprint to encourage private investment and government funding in cooperative development.

Mayor White's proposal, the result of more than one year's negotiations between Massport and the city, would cede 78 acres of the BMIP's 135 acres to Massport for the proposed development.

That earmarked acreage would be in the rectangular configuration most desirable for a container facility. To accomplish that, the city over a period of time has agreed to vacate five major industrial park buildings which are currently in use, or have solid prospects for tenants in the near future.

Mayor White said, "After long negotiations with Massport, we have arrived at a plan that we believe to be fair to the city and to Massport. We have attempted to protect the city's interest in terms of potential jobs and tax-producing property on the site, while still trying to meet the needs of Massport for this valuable proposed facility."

In return for acquiring the 78 acres of BMIP property, Massport will:

- Provide in lieu of tax payments comparable to what is paid on similar waterfront industrial sites.
- pay rent at a rate of roughly 15 cents per square foot. That rent will be only on the land, not on the buildings. It can be paid upfront or in deferred payments, depending on Massport's needs.
- provide replacement space for tenants that are either presently located there or are scheduled to be located there. The city will aid in the resettlement effort, but will not pay for any relocation.
- grant the city five year options to buy four properties formerly offered to the city at no more than the actual cash value: Hoosac Pier, Commonwealth Pier, Fish Pier, and East Boston Pier and adjacent land.
- drop its bid for the South Boston Army Base, and support the city's bid for that property, which has particular value as prime industrial space, particularly the so called building 114 which has 1.6 million square feet of area.

Mayor White said, "This proposal represents many concessions by the city and by Massport. The compromise proposal is a fair and realistic representation of the city's commitment to jobs and tax-producing property as well as Massport's fiscal constraints."

The Mayor added, "The economic benefits of this proposal are many. In lieu of tax payments, rent for the land, and the long-term prospect of some 150 new jobs for the city are some of the direct benefits. The ripple effect the construction and maintenance of such a facility has on an economy is another aspect to consider. And, importantly, the regional impact of a growing containerization facility is significant. Not only Boston will benefit if this proposal becomes a reality."

Containerization is a bulk method of shipping goods over water which has proven to be most economical in recent years. Everything from furs to grain is now shipped in this manner. When the container ships land, their cargo is transferred to truck or rail for transport to distribution centers.

Currently, Boston has one container port, the Moran Port in Charlestown. However, access to that port is hampered by the narrow channel ocean-going vessels must navigate. Access at the proposed BMIP site for ocean-going carriers is vastly superior to the Charlestown site.

Mayor White said, "The Boston economy could enjoy a substantial boost from the upgrading of its containerization facilities. If the facilities are not improved, the containerization business in Boston will strangle. If the facilities are upgraded, Boston has an opportunity to move to the forefront of the containerization industry on the East Coast."

LABOR DAY

In honor of the wage earners of the nation, the United States and Canada have set aside the first Monday in September as Labor Day, a legal holiday. The observance of this day emanated from an annual parade in New York City by the Knights of Labor on September 5 in the 1880s. Oregon, in 1887, was the first state to recognize Labor Day as a legal holiday, and other states quickly followed. On June 28, 1894, Congress passed a bill making the day a national holiday. All the states in the Union now observe Labor Day as a national holiday.

VI. LETTERS OF THANKS

DEAR COMMISSIONER PAUL,

On Sunday afternoon, July 3, 1977, this department responded to an alarm of fire for a two and one-half-story wooden frame dwelling at 67 Prospect Avenue in the Cottage Hill section of our town.

Upon arrival of the first apparatus on the scene, smoke and fire was observed coming from the second floor of the building, with rapid extension imminent.

Our department, as most during this time of year, is operating at less than desired strength because of vacations. Consequently, manpower is at a premium.

Boston Fire Fighter John J. Conway, Jr., a member of your department assigned to Engine Company 10, was in the area at the time and, upon arrival of our apparatus, immediately and without hesitation went to the assistance of our members, stretching hose lines, raising ladders and, in general, doing whatever possible to assist in the initial attack on this blaze, which was promptly declared a "working fire," resulting in dispatch of two Boston fire companies to our community as "coverage" while our department was totally committed.

Although Fire Fighter Conway received many thanks for his efforts by our personnel at the scene, the Board of Fire Engineers wishes to express our appreciation for his prompt assistance which, no doubt, significantly contributed to our success in containing this fire and halted its further extension to the attic.

BOARD OF FIRE ENGINEERS,
RICHARD N. BANGS, Chief Engineer,
NORMAN E. GILL,
DAVID W. LOUNSBURY, Clerk.

DEAR COMMISSIONER PAUL:

I would like to compliment you on the response of your department to Logan Box 12-6121. Their prompt and efficient action aided us greatly in a successful operation.

I would particularly like to commend District Chief George Rull and men of Ladder 2. The professionalism and outstanding cooperation exhibited by Chief Rull and his men was commendable. Please extend our thanks to the men concerned.

MASSACHUSETTS PORT AUTHORITY,
WILLIAM D. JEFFREY,
Acting Chief, Fire Control."

A woman and her teenage daughter were watching a typical, romantic movie of the 30s on TV. After it had ended with the usual clinch and fadeout, as most movies of those days did, the daughter turned to her mother and said, "Gee, Mom, your movies ended where ours begin."

NO. 37

BOSTON PLAN AVAILABLE FOR REVIEW

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that copies of the Boston Plan are now available for community review in Little City Halls and branch libraries across the city.

"The Boston Plan, in its present draft form, seeks $122 million in federal funds that will be used to leverage some $400 to $500 million in local and private investment over the next five years, to alleviate some of Boston's worst urban problems," Mayor White said. "While its specific proposals are earmarked for four geographical areas of the city, its job creation, economic and industrial provisions will benefit the entire city.

"It is very important, therefore, that all citizens understand the Boston Plan's intent and, potential; and, ultimately, that we achieve a consensus of local support before seeking funding from Washington.

"The current draft of the Boston Plan is just that — a draft. It is the result of over three months work by some 25 professionals from within city government. We believe that its recommendations are both imaginative and practical, but they are not engraved in stone," he said. "We are now seeking advice over the next two months."

Mayor White explained that city officials will spend the next two months meeting with neighborhood groups, labor and business leaders, state, local and federal officials to explain the provisions of the Boston Plan and obtain their views.

"I urge city residents to read the Boston Plan; discuss it with neighbors and send written comments and recommendations for improvements to the Mayor's Office of Federal Relations through October 15," Mayor White said.

"Meetings with community groups will begin in mid-September," Mayor White explained. The Boston Plan is now available for community review in all Little City Halls and branch libraries across the city.

The Plan contains over 70 proposals for major improvement to four areas of the city. Its goal is to create 14,000 permanent and 6,000 temporary construction jobs over the next five years. It is estimated that at least half of these jobs will go to Boston residents.

The highlights of the Boston Plan are:

- the revitalization of Blue Hill Avenue through industrial development at a new Crosstown Industrial Park; the establishment of two other major commercial centers; residential preservation; crime prevention; and transportation improvements.
- the creation of a "new-town, in-town" at Columbia Point by transforming its deteriorated public housing project to 1,500 units of mixed-income housing and reopening an adjacent shopping center.
- the development of a 900-acre industrial area at the Harbor, creating approximately 9,400 new permanent jobs and 2,000 temporary jobs over the next five years.
- community preservation at Hyde Park, one of Boston's stronger neighborhoods, by commercial and industrial development, improved transportation, better youth services and job development programs, and the construction of two elderly housing projects.

ALL'S "FAIR" ON CHARLES STREET

The Seventh Annual Charles Street Fair, a classic among Boston street celebrations, will be held Sunday, September 18, 1977, from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. between Beacon and Revere Streets.

The Fair, which benefits the Beacon Hill Civic Association and local merchants, annually draws visitors from a number of suburban communities as well as the Back Bay and waterfront districts.

Among the attractions this year are a Flea Market featuring antiques and Americana from several distinguished Beacon Hill homes, a wine and beer garden, where fairgoers will lunch on gourmet delicacies; and a wide selection of children's activities, including a vigorous Moon Walk, a ride on an antique fire engine, and an ice cream contest.

A highlight of the Fair is always the giant raffle drawing at 4 P.M. First Prize this year is a vacation-for-two at Club Med in Mexico.

Winners of the more than 40 other raffle prizes will be treated to a cocktail party-for-fifty, donated by the Hampshire House on Beacon Street, a seafood buffet for sixteen, prepared by noted Beacon Hill cook and author Mary Sullivan, and a year's pool membership at the Holiday Inn on Cambridge Street, plus bicycles, wines, haircuts, plants, and books.

Raffle tickets may be purchased before September 18 at stores on Charles and Cambridge Streets and at Hill House, 74 Joy Street. Tickets will also be sold at the Fair.

In keeping with the typically Boston tradition of the event, there will be no rain date!

MASSACHUSETTS AGAIN NUMBER ONE

Registrar of Motor Vehicles Alan Mackey is pleased to report that August was the second consecutive month that Massachusetts has maintained first place in the nation on a population death rate.

According to a release from the National Safety Council, Massachusetts had the lowest death rate in the nation for the first six months of 1977 based on a rate of 10.5 deaths per 100,000 population. The national rate was 22.2 deaths per 100,000 population.

Massachusetts tied with Ohio and Vermont for sixth place in the nation for the first six months of 1977 based on a rate of 2.1 deaths per 100,000,000 motor vehicle miles traveled. The national rate for the same period was 3.2 deaths per 100,000,000 motor vehicle miles traveled.

NEW APPOINTMENT

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced the appointment of Elena M. Bianco of Boston as administrative director of the Mayor's Office of Communications.

Bianco had been working as administrative assistant to former Director of Communications Albert Mark, who has resigned.

Mayor White said she will coordinate communication activities with Press Secretary George K. Regan, who will continue to serve as the Mayor's chief spokesman and media relations policy advisor. Regan, 28, has worked in a press capacity in the White administration since 1974.

Bianco, 32, was executive secretary to former Communications Officer Frank Tivnan in the early 1970s.

In 1973-1974, she served as deputy director of the City Corps, a program for placement of volunteer workers in city departments. In 1974 she was named office manager of the Mayor's Office, preparing budget, and accounts of departmental expenditures, processing payroll records and personnel records, and orienting new employees. She performed similar duties after transferring to the Office of Communications when it was formed in February of this year.

Mayor White called the Bianco appointment "a move to address the administrative needs of the department which has responsibility for articulating my administration's policies to the public."

The Mayor said he made the Bianco appointment right on the heels of the Mark resignation "to assure the continued smooth functioning of the diverse activities handled by the Communications Office," including press relations and writing assignments, special projects, internal communications, and graphics.

Bianco, who lives in the North End, received her B.A. from Marymount College in Tarrytown, N.Y., majoring in political science. She received her master's degree in Education/American Studies from Fairfield (Ct.) University in 1971, shortly before she joined the White Administration.

She worked for five years as an elementary school teacher in Montrose, New York. She worked for four years as a part-time staff worker for the late Senator Robert F. Kennedy and in 1970 served as district leader for the Westchester County Democratic Committee.

DIGITAL CORPORATION TO LOCATE IN BOSTON

In a move regarded as the first major step in the implementation of the Boston Plan, Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that Boston has been selected as the site for a new manufacturing facility by one of the leading firms in the rapidly growing computer industry.

Digital Equipment Corporation, an international computer company based in Maynard, Mass., has chosen a five-acre parcel in Boston's 15-acre Crosstown Industrial Park near the corner of Massachusetts Avenue and Albany Street in Roxbury, as the site for a new 60,000 square foot facility which is expected to employ between 200 and 300 persons.

Mayor White said, "Digital's decision to locate in the Crosstown Industrial Park reflects their confidence in the future of the city. More importantly, it reflects the confidence in the Crosstown Industrial Park location and the potential of the labor force in the neighborhoods which surround it. It will provide the greatest boost to the Blue Hill Avenue area in 10 years, and will aid greatly in economic revitalization efforts there."

The Boston Plan, in which the Crosstown Industrial Park figure prominently, is the city's comprehensive blueprint for economic development through the attraction of private investment and government funding in four key areas of the city.

Mayor White added, "Digital's single decision, more than any other, is positive proof that Boston is good for business. It comes at a time when the city is reaching a genuine turning point in its business health, and demonstrates a reversal that has occurred in the last year — a time when Boston gained approximately 3,000 manufacturing jobs, the largest increase in such jobs since 1950-51."

Private capital investment in the Digital site will total $2 million. The planned expansion will cost an additional $2.5 million of private investment.

Digital's decision to locate in Boston was a result of the cooperative efforts of the Community Development Corporation of Boston, the Economic Development and Industrial Corporation, the Boston Redevelopment Authority, and the state's Southwest Corridor Development coordinator.

Digital will locate on parcels which EDIC has assembled from properties owned by the Boston Redevelopment Authority, the city itself, and the state Department of Public Works.

Mayor White said, "This type of governmental interaction to attract business and manufacturing to the city is one of the underlying principles of the Boston Plan. Digital can be seen as an anchor of future revitalization of the Upper Blue Hill Avenue area. And Digital, by its commitment to the city, can act as a catalyst, bringing future industry into that area."

In concert with the Digital move, a new Crosstown street through the new industrial park will provide space for Digital to expand an additional 65,000 feet in the future. The $8 million roadway, which should be under construction by the late this autumn, will also provide access and development opportunities to a number of other sites in the South End/Lower Roxbury community in addition to the industrial park.

A major portion of the land in the new Crosstown Industrial Park has been acquired and cleared by the BRA as part of the South End Urban Renewal Project. The remainder is comprised of land purchased for roadway purposes by the Commonwealth for the construction of the once proposed Inner Belt.

Mayor White said, "I am particularly pleased that land which had been taken for roadway use is now being returned to the tax rolls to bolster neighborhoods with permanent jobs."

SWITCH HEATERS FOR MBTA

The MBTA Board of Directors recently authorized the Boston and Maine Railroad, which operates the Authority's commuter rail service, to install switch heaters to melt snow and ice away at switch points along various lines north of Boston. The work, estimated to cost $349,590, will be done in time for this winter.

The Board also authorized the purchase of 74 engine/transmission packages to replace worn and obsolete engine assemblies in the rail diesel (Budd) cars at a cost of $2,440,760. The packages, consisting of a Detroit Diesel Allison engine and Niigata hydraulic transmission, will be ordered from Power Products, Inc., of Woburn, local distributor of Detroit Diesel. Niigata is a Detroit Diesel Allison licensee. Delivery is scheduled to start next May and be completed before October 1978.

B & M mechanics will install the power packages. The total cost per car to have it ready for operation is estimated at $69,996.

The rehabilitation of the Budd cars and purchase of the switch heaters are part of the MBTA's $57.8 million federally aided Commuter Rail Improvements Program — Phase II.

UMASS RECEIVES HISTORICAL BOSTON RECORDS

The UMass-Boston Library's Dorchester Archive has received its initial major contribution in the form of a permanent loan of 19 volumes of Boston records, including those of Dorchester and Roxbury, from Robert Severy, historian of the Dorchester Historical Society.

The material was published by the Office of Record Commissioners of Boston which was established by the City Council in 1875 to complete the compilation of births, deaths, and marriages in Boston from 1630 to 1849, said Mrs. Molly Matson, public services librarian of the University Library.

Additionally, the volumes include selectmen's records, "The Book of Possessions," comprising a list of land holdings with maps indicating the location of individual property; and miscellaneous papers such as wills, deeds, and court records.

"We are very grateful to Mr. Severy and the Dorchester Historical Society for this outstanding collection of material for the Dorchester Archive, and hope that other individuals and groups possessing similar materials will make them available to the Archive," said Mrs. Matson.

Mr. Severy, a long-time student of Dorchester area history, taught a course in the history of Dorchester last year at UMass-Boston.

The UMass-Boston Library at the Harbor Campus decided to establish a Dorchester Archive this past spring after recognizing the special need for such a collection of local papers to serve its patrons on campus and in the surrounding communities. It was also noted that no other library, either academic or public, was concentrating exclusively on building a collection of original historical material on Dorchester.

Mrs. Matson said the UMass-Boston Library is ideally located to serve as a storehouse for these records for the community at large. It also can provide excellent protection for valuable papers, and has the trained staff to properly store, index, and service historical records.

Mrs. Matson said that the Dorchester Archive Committee, which she serves as chairperson, welcomes any contributions from the community as direct gifts or extended loans.

Any interested parties should contact her at the UMass-Boston campus, tel. 287-1900, ext. 2206.

DRIVERS: PLEASE BE ALERT!

The return of over one million school children to classrooms shortly after Labor Day signals a warning to drivers to be on the alert for their presence on the highways.

Registrar of Motor Vehicles Alan Mackey urges strict compliance with the school bus law because more children than ever before will be bused to schools. "Drivers must stop when school bus lights are flashing for passengers to alight from or board same no matter in which direction they are going except when they are traveling in the opposite direction on a divided highway," Mackey said.

The presence of children should be anticipated at corners, intersections, crosswalks, near playgrounds and other recreational areas as well as in school zones.

Parents should pay special attention to children going to school for the first time.

"If drivers and parents are patient and work together, we can save lives and prevent crippling injuries," Mackey said.

CITY PREPARES LEGISLATION TO INCREASE INDEMNIFICATION FOR POLICE AND FIRE VEHICLES

City Corporation Counsel Herbert Gleason has announced that the city has prepared legislation to ease restrictions on the indemnification of police officers and fire fighters involved in motor vehicle accidents.

The city's legislation, according to Mr. Gleason, would allow the police or fire commissioner to render discretionary judgments on settlements if one of their vehicles becomes involved in an accident. Currently, there are $15,000 and $40,000 limits on indemnification of all city employees involved in automobile accidents, depending on the date after the accident.

The legislation would amend Section 100 of Ch. 41 of the General Laws of Massachusetts.

Mr. Gleason said, "In effect this legislation will increase our ability to respond in a fair manner to claims made against police officers and fire fighters involved in automobile accidents. We feel that these emergency vehicles should be more heavily insured because of the high-risk nature of their business."

He added, "This legislation has been filed in response to requests from both the police and fire departments for greater coverage for their vehicles. It is also in response to the suit brought by Mrs. Bridget Neville against former Boston Police Patrolman John O'Brien."

The city has filed the legislation to allow greater flexibility for police and fire emergency vehicle accidents to ensure greater protection to the public and to police and fire officers.

Mr. Gleason said, "In the particular case of Mrs. Neville, this legislation will allow us to go beyond the $15,000 compensation figure in existence at the time of Mrs. Neville's accident, and will also provide protection from personal suits for Patrolman O'Brien."

Action is expected on the legislation in about two weeks. After the legislation becomes law, the corporation counsel's office and Mrs. Neville's attorney will resume negotiations on the case.

SALUTE TO ITALY!

The Boston Public Library in Copley Square will be paying tribute to the Italian community during the month of October with a festival of lectures, films, and exhibitions celebrating the Italian spirit and genius. Highlighting the Library's "Salute to Italy" will be a major exhibition, "Italian Books of the 70s", sponsored by the Boston Public Library and Casalini Libri, containing over 3,000 books which represent trends in publishing in Italy in the humanities, social sciences, sciences, and children's literature. A selection of quality recordings of Italian and international music and a sampling of posters of artistic merit will be included. Treasures from the collections of the Research Library will also be displayed: "Italian Prints" in the Wiggins Gallery; "Italian Rare Books and Manuscripts" in the Rare Book Department; "Italian Music — Special Scores and Books" in the Cheverus and Cushman Rooms.

Mario Casalini, Director, Italian Publishers Association, will open the Italian book exhibition on Saturday, October 1, with a talk on "Italian Books of the 70s." Joining him as a featured speaker in the program will be The Honorable John A. Volpe with "Reflections of an Ambassador." Mr. Volpe served as Ambassador to Italy from 1973 to 1976; Secretary of Transportation from 1969 to 1973, and as Governor of Massachusetts from 1961 to 1965 and 1965 to 1969. Subsequent programs on Thursday evening will feature a concert by two of Italy's most promising young musicians, Marta Misuri, flutist, and Francesco Dilaghi, pianist, their premier performance in the United States (October 6); illustrated lectures on "Architecture and Urban Planning in Italy" by Samuel Ussia, engineer and President, Dante Alighieri Society (October 13) and on Italian art, "The Berensons and Villa I Tatti," by Myron P. Gilmore, Gurney Professor of History and Political Science, Harvard University and Director, I Tatti from 1964 to 1970 (October 20). Carlo Golino, Chancellor, University of Massachusetts Boston, will conclude the lecture series on October 27 with a commentary on "Contemporary Italian Literature." All lectures will be held at 7:45 P.M.

The "Salute" will also recognize the art of Italian cinema. "Remembering Rossellini" will be the theme of two Friday night offerings. On October 7 "Open City," Rossellini's powerful film of Rome during the German occupation, will be screened, followed on October 14 by a presentation of "Paisà," Rossellini's gripping semidocumentary of the Allied campaign in Italy in World War II. Both films will be shown at 6:30 P.M. On Saturday, October 29, "The Clown," Federico Fellini's delightful film for all ages, will be viewed at 3 P.M. Throughout the month, beginning October 12 and extending through October 28, short documentaries will be scheduled for Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 1:15 PM.

All the exhibits, lectures, and films can be attended free of charge. The public is invited to join the library in this "Salute to Italy" celebration.
